

There is no more one month waiting period between booking Masses. Just please be sure to book your seat(s). If you book a seat on a multiple seat row and it is just you, you must book all seats as no one other than those in your household can sit with you.