A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar - Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.

Evangelization Challenge for July

Always go to Sunday Mass (or Saturday evening), including if going on vacation. Let us bring to mind that Mass is objectively the greatest reality and gift this side of Heaven, and that, under the virtue of justice, we owe God this worship due Him. As a corollary to this, it is a grave sin for a Catholic to miss Sunday Mass without serious reason, e.g. sickness. In other words, let us not take a vacation from Mass.

"He should know that whoever undertakes the government of souls must prepare himself to account for them."

The camp has been held annually for the past 33 years, and is primarily dependent on volunteer support. Anyone 16+ is welcome to volunteer for full-time or part-time duties; there is a particular need for male volunteers, 18 or older, who are able to spend the night. All volunteers are required to complete the Diocesan Clearance process and attend a brief training session prior to helping at camp. There is no cost to volunteers; all meals, events, campground activities, etc. are included. A deadline of June 30, 2019 for expressing volunteer interest is requested in order to facilitate planning efforts.
