A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar - Jesus is saying to you what he said to Zacchaeus, "I must stay at your house today." It doesn't matter if in today's gospel Jesus "intended to pass through Jericho to another town." In families we sometimes stop at the wrong places. It is wisdom to "pass through" annoying family situations so we can enjoy the goodness of each other.

Find comfort at the Seton Shrine's retreat, Grieving Through the Holidays, on November 15. It features talks from Jeannie Ewing, a Catholic writer who's written "For Those who Grieve" (2019) and "From Grief to Grace" (2016). For questions, please email office@setonshrine.org or call 301-447-6606.

We must meditate before, during and after everything we do. The prophet says: "I will pray, and then I will understand." This is the way we can easily overcome the countless difficulties we have to face day after day, which, after all, are part of our work. In meditation we find the strength to bring Christ to birth in ourselves and in others.
