12 Myths about Marriage Annulments in the Catholic Church

Myth Number Five:

It Takes Three to Five Years to Get an Annulment

The truth is that every annulment case is different, and some processes are longer than others, but few cases ever take more than 18 months from start to finish. Decades ago, it did take several years, but today the longest process is usually finished 9 to 18 months. Some types of cases can be finished in a month or even less. It is a myth that the typical marriage annulment takes three years or more to complete.

Bishop Ronald W. Gainer has announced his invitation to pastors to nominate men who wish to consider the Permanent Diaconate. Approximately 20 men, and if married, accompanied by their spouses, will be admitted to a year of aspiration (exploration and discernment) beginning January 2021. The program will last a total of five years. Participants will be selected taking into account projected needs of the parishes, ministries, and geography of the Diocese. Nominees must be faithful Catholic men, between the ages of 35 and 62, Catholic for at least three years, if married, in a valid and stable marriage of at least seven years and known to the pastor of their parish. In addition, they must possess an undergraduate degree, or its equivalent, be able to undertake graduate level studies, and be gainfully employed. Applications must be obtained from the parish pastor after an initial discussion with him. Applications cannot be obtained directly from any Diocesan office. The Diaconate is an order of the Catholic clergy open to married and single men. As such, the Permanent Deacon is a member of the Church's hierarchy, who is configured to Christ the Servant through the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Applications for the Permanent Diaconate will be accepted until September 15, 2020.

Ride for Life Goal 1,000 miles $20,000.00

“1,000 miles.....in 24 hours or less.....on a Triumph Bonneville motorcycle. No creature comforts on this bike; no windscreen, no soft seat, no radio. Why? As we all know, even during the best of times, life can be a struggle. And with the anti-life culture war now in full swing, not to mention the challenges brought on by COVID – 19, it is easy to be a victim, it is easy to back off and feel sorry for ourselves. But not us, and not those like us!

In these most challenging times, Tender Care had to cancel the spring banquet, so in an effort to help overcome our financial challenges, I challenge myself. In celebration of life, and a commitment to the unborn, I will test myself by riding from my home in Manchester Maryland, to our Gettysburg Center, and from there, to the Pregnancy Care Center, located in Springfield Missouri. A distance of just over 1,000 miles in 24 hours or less.

I ask that each of you, challenge yourselves, and help us help those, that cannot help themselves."

Vince Pacelli
Tender Care Executive Director

To support Vince's adventure and help him reach his goal of raising $20,000 go to www.tendercare.org. You can follow along with Vince's progress on Tender Care Pregnancy's Facebook page on Sunday, August 23rd.

Jesus is with us to help us do what may seem impossible. Have faith that you will not sink. Listen for his voice of encouragement. If God may be calling you to the priesthood or consecrated life, visit www.hbgiocese.org.

We must be as satisfied to be powerless, idle and still before God, and dried up and barren when He permits it, as to be full of life, enjoying His presence with ease and devotion. The whole matter of our union with God consists in being content either way.
