12 Myths about Marriage Annulments in the Catholic Church

Myth Number Eleven:

“The Tribunal is Like a Courtroom. With Judges, Witnesses, Lawyers & Cross-Examinations”

The truth is that the Tribunal is a Court of Law for the Church, but it is very different from a civil courtroom. Depending on the type of case, the spouses may have Advocates, and there will be 1 to 3 judges, but most of the work is done in writing, and there is never an emotional courtroom scene as in television dramas. If a person appears in person to offer testimony, it is usually done in a private interview, and never with “cross-examination!” It is a myth that the Tribunal is like a TV courtroom.

The harm that comes to souls from the lack of reading holy books makes me shudder...What powerful spiritual reading has to lead to a change of course, and to make even worldly people enter into the way of perfection.

-St. Pio of Pietrelcina (1887-1968), Priest, Stigmatic, Feast Day September 23

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar - Today Jesus is saying to us: “Why are you idle? Go into my vineyard.” Family, where “the last will be first,” is the “vineyard” entrusted to us in today’s gospel. Successful families are constructed by “laborers,” who work hard on family relationships, and not by couch potatoes.
