Dear parish family,

We had a successful Vacation Bible School this week and our special thanks to the coordinators and leaders; Kristina Sommer, Ashley Mathews, Bianca Arévalo and all those volunteer parents and youth alike. Thank you so much for the stewardship of your time and service giving our parish kids special time learning the values of life in a fun way. These indeed are spiritual riches, we parish family greatly appreciate.

All the readings this Sunday have a negative view about material possessions and riches. These readings surely go against our most common aspirations for riches. But the Word of God confronts us with the negative view about them not because they are bad or evil in themselves but because God wants us to see and realize the right attitude towards them.

"One’s life does not consist of possessions,” Jesus emphatically declares in this Sunday’s gospel. And to drive home that message, he tells the parable of a rich man who “has it all,” the means to enjoy his wealth. But he dies the very night he makes his great plans.

What does this entail? Those things that really matter are those that last even after we die. We will all be stripped of all material goods, even those legitimately acquired. What remains will only be the quality of our life and how we have made use of our goods, be they much or little.

Our “goods” are not just our possessions but also all we have including our talents and abilities. In other words, we simply are all stewards of the gifts from God. How good stewards are we? This is the question we all have to ask ourselves.

Next month is our Stewardship month. Each Sunday we will highlight some ministries of our parish that needs some help. There are so many opportunity to share our God given gifts for the glory of God and service of the parish family. May you consider where you can be of help.

Blessings to all and have a good week. Fr. Tony

Estimada familia parroquial,

Tuvimos una exitosa Escuela Bíblica esta semana y nuestro especial agradecimiento a los coordinadores y líderes; Kristina Sommer, Ashley Mathews, Bianca Arévalo y todos aquellos padres voluntarios y a los jóvenes. Muchas gracias por la administración de su tiempo y servicio dando a nuestros niños de la parroquia un especial aprendizaje de los valores de la vida en una manera divertida. Estos son de hecho las riquezas espirituales, la familia parroquial lo apreciamos enormemente.

Todas las lecturas de este domingo tienen una opinión negativa sobre las posesiones materiales y riquezas. Estas lecturas sin duda van en contra de nuestras aspiraciones más comunes de riquezas. Pero la Palabra de Dios nos confronta con la visión negativa sobre ellos, no porque sean malas o malas en sí mismas, sino porque Dios quiere que veamos y nos demos cuenta de la actitud correcta hacia esto.

El creyente en Cristo, que está poseído por un profundo y sincero amor por Jesús, y una pasión para servirle a Él, se destaca en marcado contraste con esta cultura de egoísmo y la codicia. En su lugar, se entregan al servicio de Dios y al prójimo, promoviendo una vida de paz, con propósito y de alegría a través de conocer y servir a Cristo. Después de haber puesto nuestro corazón en las cosas de Cristo nuestra más grande expectativa es de recompensa espiritual. Siguiendo las palabras de St. Paul en nuestra segunda lectura "busca lo que está arriba...", que miren la riqueza y las posesiones de este mundo no como un fin personal sino como medios que sean usados para la gloria de Dios.

"La vida de uno no consiste en las posesiones," Jesús declara enfáticamente en el Evangelio de este domingo. Y para llevar a casa ese mensaje, les dice la parábola de un hombre rico que "lo tiene todo", los medios para disfrutar de su riqueza. Pero muere la misma noche que hace que sus grandes planes.

¿Qué implica esto? Esas cosas que realmente importan son las que duran incluso después de morir. Todos vamos a ser despoblados de todos los bienes materiales, incluso los adquiridos legítimamente. Lo que queda sólo será la calidad de nuestras vidas y cómo hemos utilizado nuestras posesiones, ya sea mucho o poco.

Nuestros "bienes" no son sólo nuestras posesiones, sino también todo lo que somos incluyendo nuestros talentos y habilidades. En otras palabras, simplemente todos somos administradores de los dones de Dios. Que tan buenos administradores somos? Esta es la pregunta que todos tenemos que preguntarnos.

El próximo mes es nuestro mes de Servicio o Ministerios. Cada domingo haremos énfasis sobre algunos ministerios de nuestra parroquia que necesitan un poco de ayuda. Hay tantas oportunidades de compartir nuestros dones dados por Dios para Su gloria y el servicio de la familia parroquial. Tomen en consideración las diferentes oportunidades en donde puedan ayudar.

Bendiciones a todos y que tengan una buena semana. P. Tony

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

Garland of Mercy…

In this Jubilee Year, we are asked to open our eyes and hearts to see how God is working in our lives and to more actively spread His mercy out to others. We are creating a Garland of Mercy with our teen group to bear witness to our efforts to help others.

For the entire year, we are asking each week when you do works of mercy, to write down one or more works on the strips of paper in the ends of the pews. Please put them into the collection basket so that we offer up, not just our works of mercy which we received from others.

Red Strips are for The Corporal Works of Mercy: feeding the hungry, clothing the needy, visiting the sick or imprisoned.

White Strips are for The Spiritual Works of Mercy: Counseling the doubtful, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offences willingly and praying for the living and the dead.

Gold Ones are for the acts of mercy which we received from others.

I know that all of you are part of spreading God's mercy out into the world. Please take the time to become more conscious of it and take credit for it here before the Lord.

Volunteer VIRTUS Training

“Protecting God’s Children”

Registration @ VIRTUS.ORG

Preventing child sexual abuse is the goal of the Archdiocesan Safe Environment Office. “Protecting God’s Children” is the program selected by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston to educate clergy, staff, and volunteers who work with children and youth about child sexual abuse and the ways to create a safe environment for children. The 3-hour live session includes videos and facilitated discussions that focus on the prevention of abuse and the protection of children. Adults learn how to recognize the warning signs of sexual abuse and how to respond appropriately. You will learn about steps that the faith community can take to create a safe environment for all God’s children and how to respond when adults behave in a way that raises concerns.

“Protecting God’s Children” workshops are held throughout the Archdiocese.
