The Gospel of Mark

Monday Morning Bible Study

This shortest of all New Testament gospels is likely the first to have been written, yet it often tells of Jesus' ministry in more detail than either Matthew or Luke. It recounts what Jesus did in a vivid style, where one incident follows directly upon another.

In this almost breathless narrative, Mark stresses Jesus' message about the kingdom of God now breaking into human life as good news and Jesus himself as the gospel of God. Jesus is the Son whom God has sent to rescue humanity by serving and by sacrificing his life

Meet Fr. Scott Blick

Fr. W. Scott Blick is a priest of the U.S./Canadian Anglican Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter and has full faculties to serve as a priest in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.

The Ordinariates were developed so that clergy of the Anglican/Episcopalian tradition, who found themselves no longer able to serve the Anglican/Episcopalian Church in good conscience, would have a vehicle through which they could come into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church and be ordained as priests even though they were married.

Fr. Scott was received into the Catholic Church in Feb. 2012 after 35 years of ministry in the Episcopal Church and was ordained by His Eminence, Daniel Cardinal DiNardo on May 7, 2013.

Fr. Scott is married to Kathleen Mensik Blick who is a facilities planner for the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in the Texas Medical Center. She is a "cradle born" Roman Catholic and they have one son, Andrew, attending John Paul II Catholic School. Monsignor Edward Randall married Scott and Kathy here in St. Cyril of Alexander Roman Catholic Church.

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter

On January 1, 2012, the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, Pope Benedict XVI established the second Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter for those groups of Anglicans in the United States who seek to enter into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church.

Equivalent to a diocese, the Ordinariate is composed of parishes, groups, religious communities, and individuals of the Anglican heritage gathered around the Ordinary. They serve under the direct authority of the Pope, in partnership with the bishops of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, to build up the Roman Catholic Church through mutual mission and ministry while retaining elements of the Anglican patrimony.

You can learn about the U.S./Canadian Anglican Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter from Msgr. Jeffrey Steenson's special presentation at our November 2011 Theology on the Vine.
