

During this current health emergency, the Holy Rosary and St. Wenceslaus campuses are closed to the public and parishioners. You can stay connected to us through prayer and online by viewing our communal prayers.

As of Wednesday, March 18, 2020, Daniel Cardinal DiNardo suspended the public celebration of all weekday and Sunday Masses in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston until further notice.

We are encouraged to remember that Sunday is still the Lord's Day. Families should gather to pray, read scripture, recite the Rosary, and reflect together on their faith.

You can read Daniel Cardinal DiNardo's entire message below.

Fr. Orrin wants to assure each and every one of you of his continued prayers during this trying time. Please know he and the Holy Rosary staff are praying for your family, your health and safety, and that you remain close to Christ during this time.

The demographics of Holy Rosary Parish are primarily comprised of people in the highly vulnerable population and are advised by the CDC to remain home and self-quarantine at this time. In response to the Cardinal's directives, and out of our concern for our people, Holy Rosary has canceled or postponed the following until further notice:

Weekday and Sunday Masses
Baptisms
RCIA class
Faith Formation Class
Youth Ministry
Young Adult gatherings
Adult Bible Study
Rosary Group
Young at Heart
Perpetual Adoration Chapel
Grief Ministry

Altar Society
Stations of the Cross
Lenten Mission
School Board
Finance Council
Stewardship Committee
Pastoral Council
Building Committee
...and any other group that meets at St. Wenceslaus or Holy Rosary campuses.

Even though our Sunday Masses are canceled at this time, Fr. Orrin asks the faithful to continue to support your parish community through online giving or by mail. This will ensure our parish is able to continue to pay monthly bills and serve you. In order to limit people on the grounds, we are locking the gates to limit access to the driveways and parking lots. Please utilize the U.S. Postal Service instead of leaving your home to bring your envelope up to the church during this time. If you have never signed up for online giving through Faith Direct, maybe now is the time. Click here to go to Faith Direct and enter the Parish Code TX295

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

This week...

Let's gather together online for prayer.

There are three ways you can join us for prayer online from home:
