Christ THE KING

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is celebrated on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, before the beginning of Advent that starts the new Church Year. As the last Sunday of the year, Christ the King Sunday is the conclusion of the Church's liturgical journey through the life of Christ and the gospel message. Its purpose is to celebrate the coming reign of Christ as ruler of the renewed creation that will characterize the fullness of the Kingdom of God. That hope is born from the entire life of Christ and his teachings that we have been celebrating during the past twelve months.

The first Sunday of Advent follows Christ the King Sunday and consequently, a new cycle of Sunday Mass readings, drawn from a different Gospel, begins the new cycle of the Church Year.

History

The Solemnity of Christ the King is a newer feast in the Catholic Church that was instituted by Pope Pius XI in his encyclical Quas Primas in 1925.

At the time, secularism was on the rise with the establishment of non-Christian dictatorships in Europe and many Christians began to doubt Christ's existence and authority. In response, Pius XI established the feast with the intent to reaffirm and refocus faith and respect for the kingship of Jesus and as the ruler over both creation and history.

Christ as King

Christians have long celebrated Jesus as Christ, and various aspects of his reign are celebrated in Advent (when Christians wait for his second coming in glory), Christmas (when his star reveals him to be "King of the Jews"), Holy Week (when he is the crucified king), Easter (when he is resurrected in power and glory), and the Ascension (when he returns to the glory he had with the Father before the world was created).

Originally, the feast was celebrated on the final Sunday of October, prior to All Saints Day. In 1969, to emphasize its importance, Pope Paul VI moved the feast to the last Sunday before Advent. So now the old liturgical year ends by celebrating Christ's kingship and the new year begins with Advent, when we await the coming of Christ to rule our hearts and lives.

The Lectionary and the Liturgical Year

In the Church Year, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent and concluding with the Solemnity of Christ the King, the Church celebrates and lives out the mystery of Christ. The history of salvation unfolds throughout this liturgical cycle.

The liturgical cycle divides the year into a series of seasons, each with its own mood and theological emphasis, which is expressed by different ways of decorating the church, the colors of the priest's vestments (see below, right) and the scripture readings chosen for each day found in the Lectionary for Mass.

Before Vatican II, the selection of readings for the lectionary consisted of a one year cycle of two readings, one from a New Testament letter and one from one of the gospels.

Vatican II wanted Catholics to become more familiar with Scripture and so changed the Sunday Mass readings to the present three-year cycle (A, B or C) with three readings (plus the Psalm) at each Mass. This resulted in Catholics hearing much more of the Old Testament, and hearing the majority of the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. The Gospel of John is read during the Easter season and in the other seasons of Advent, Christmas, and Lent where appropriate.

In addition, the Catholic lectionary also includes a two-year cycle for the weekday Mass readings (Cycle I and Cycle II). These readings are generally shorter than those chosen for use on Sundays and the Gospels are arranged so that portions of all four are read every year.

SEASONS OF THE LITURGICAL YEAR

Advent begins the liturgical year on the fourth Sunday before Christmas. A season of hope as well as penance, Advent features the writings of the Old Testament prophets in its Mass readings.

Christmas begins with Christmas Day, goes through Epiphany and concludes with the Baptism of the Lord. As a celebration of the Incarnation, the Christmas season also highlights the manifestation of Christ's divinity to the world.

Lent is a 40 day preparation for Easter that focuses on fasting, prayer and almsgiving. Lent is a time to reflect on how well we are living out our baptism.

The Paschal or Easter Triduum (from the Latin, three days) begins with the Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper and continues until Easter evening.

The Easter Season extends from Easter Sunday through Pentecost Sunday. During this time, the Church reflects on the mystery of our redemption through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus.

Ordinary Time is the only liturgical season that comes in two sections. The first begins with the Baptism of the Lord and goes until Ash Wednesday. The second follows Pentecost and concludes with the Feast of Christ the King.

LITURGICAL COLORS

Through the Church Year, the vestments worn by the priest at Mass signify meaning associated with the various seasons of the liturgical calendar.

White, the color of joy and victory, is used for the seasons of Easter and Christmas and select feasts through the year. Select saints who are not martyrs are also celebrated with white. In addition, white is also a reminder of the resurrection and can therefore be used at funerals.

Red, the color of fire and blood is used on the days when we celebrate the passion of Jesus, Passion (Palm) Sunday and Good Friday. It is also used for the birth feasts of the apostles and evangelists and for the celebrations of martyrs.

Green, symbolizes life, anticipation, and hope and is used during Ordinary Time.

Violet or purple, seen in Advent, helps us to remember that we are preparing for the coming of Christ. Lent, the season of penance, repentance, and renewal, also uses the color.

Rose is an optional color and may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent, Gaudete Sunday, and on the Fourth Sunday of Lent, Laetare Sunday. It expresses the joy of anticipation for Christmas and Easter.

Feast of Christ the King — “Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’” John 18:36
How often do we put all our time and energy into building a kingdom here on earth, forgetting that life here is sort? The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time and energy do we invest in working for that eternal kingdom?

Fiesta de Cristo Rey — “Respondió Jesús: Mi reino no es de este mundo” Juan 18:36 ¿Con qué frecuencia ponemos todo nuestro tiempo y energía en construir un reino aquí en la tierra, olvidando que la vida aquí es corta? El verdadero reino está en la próxima vida. Sin embargo, ¿cuánto tiempo y energía invertimos en trabajar para ese reino eterno?

NOTICE REGARDING THE SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
THE SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION, falls on Saturday, December 8 this year. As this is the patronal feast day of the United States and of the Archdiocese the obligation to attend Mass is never dispensed. Accordingly, parishes should plan to offer adequate Masses for the Solemnity, both during the day on Saturday and by making use of the Vigil Mass on Friday evening. Please note that Masses after 4 p.m. on Saturday, December 8 must use the prayers and readings for the Second Sunday of Advent. The faithful are obliged to attend two Masses that weekend and no single Mass can count for both obligations. ANY Mass celebrated between 4 p.m. Friday and the end of the day Saturday fulfills the obligation for the Solemnity.

A Bilingual Mass will be celebrated at 6:00 PM December 7th for this Holy Day, December 8th.

CHRIST IS KING

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.

By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity.

In Our Prayers

We remember in prayer our friends and loved ones in active military duty, both in and out of harms way, in the service of their our country. Pray for peace in the world and for our leaders.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR NOV.

General Intention — UNIVERSAL: In the service of Peace. That the language of love and dialogue may always prevail over the language of conflict.

P.E.R.A. (Perpetual Eucharistic Reparative Adoration)

We are inviting and highly encouraging everyone to sign-up for our "P.E.R.A." (Perpetual Eucharistic Reparative Adoration). We are asking everyone to devote ONE HOUR (at least) a WEEK adoring God in the Blessed Sacrament—that is, only asking 168 parishioners to make adoration of God everyday, 24/7! We do this as a Parish Community in response to the teaching of St. John Paul II:

The "Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to make amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease."

(Dominicae cenae, 3)

Please call Mary Rangel @ 936-419-9024.
