

DIOCESE OF LINCOLN

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

March 23, 2021
St. Turibius

Reverend and dear Monsignor/Father and Lay faithful,

Greetings in the Lord. I am writing this letter of recommendation for Jacqueline Loh, the founder of Grace that Reigns, a ministry that provides evangelization, priestly renewal and healing. In her 23 years of service to priests and lay people, Jacqueline has provided spiritual direction, needed resources and a path to healing. She has a passion for the Church and the sacraments which helps to guide individuals to see Jesus alive and active in their daily lives.

I believe that Jacqueline is an effective and compassionate Spiritual Director. I think her charism of healing, and her gift of a listening heart make her an excellent resource for both priests and the lay faithful. She is able to bring the joy and the hope of the Gospel to those who are in need of God's love and healing.

I recommend Jacqueline to you as a capable Spiritual Director and encourage you to prayerfully consider the possibility of working with her.

With my blessing and every prayerful good wish for you, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Rev. James D. Conley
Bishop of Lincoln
