November 15 to 30: Peter Sitkowski 732-428-2566
December 1 to 15: Howard Gordon 215-316-1982
“THE PROPER OF TIME” – is a phrase I find haunting. In the Roman Missal, these words are found on an otherwise blank page that opens the entire Church Year. How is Time to be properly understood? Received? Spent? Shared?

BACK TO THE FUTURE – Starting today and for the next two Sundays, we will be presented with readings and prayers directing our attention to the end of time and the Second Coming of Christ. Our liturgical celebrations will take us “back to the Future” or as the Irish phrase it to “the back of Beyond”.

“TIME’S UP” - that is, Time itself is up--up for reflection, for review, for consideration and examination. Paraphrasing the psalmist who writes “In your light, O God, we see light” (Psalm 36:9) we might say, “in contemplating eternity, O God, we see time.” I don’t know who discovered water, but I’m pretty sure it wasn’t a fish. How can we stand apart from that within which we are immersed, such as: Light? Oxygen? Culture? Time? One way is to pause and take a “Time Out” from time.

TELLING TIME - We need not to be only passive recipients of time; we need not to only “go with the flow” of time. To some degree we have the power to step out of, to stand apart from, to shape, to “tell” time. We can do this by naming time.

NAMING – We can name or shape time according to our purposes (eg. the school year; the fiscal year; baseball season); according to nature (eg., the lunar year; the solar year; winter; blueberry season). We may arrange time according to our stories (eg, my year of living dangerously; my year of hibernation; the year our dog died). That said, we may also seek for A Story into which to insert and integrate all our individual and collective stories (eg. the Year 5780 for Jews; the Year 2020 A.D. for Christians)

YEAR OF THE LORD – Next Sunday will be the 34th and final Sunday of the Year. And just what year is that? “The Year of the Lord”. Seeing Christ as the Center of Time, we divide time into the years before Christ (B.C.) and the years after Christ (A.D. = Anno Domini = Year of the Lord).

CHURCH YEAR – Having named Christ as the center of time, our Tradition arranges our prayer life so as to allow us year by year to become more integrated into Him in whom “we live, and move, and have our being” (Acts 17:28), and to become more incorporated into the action of his once-for-all living, dying, and rising. (2 Corinthians 4:10-11). We call this the Church Year, or Liturgical Year, or Year of Prayer or....

“THE YEAR OF GRACE” - This is my favorite way of naming time. We need not simply cycle on the surface of the years allotted to us. Guided by grace, led by liturgical celebrations over time we need not “go in circles” but we can rather spiral or bore down into a deeper awareness of God and into a closer conformation with Christ. In Hebrew the name Ann means Grace, and the motto of Saint Ann Parish is “To Grow in Grace through Jesus Christ”, which expresses succinctly what we as a community are aiming at. This is our aim, our purpose, our goal, our END.

Pope Francis has directed that the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time be set aside each year for communities to “reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel” (see Matthew 25:31-46). On this World Day of the Poor we can reflect on the many opportunities in our town not only for serving our neighbors but also for getting outside our silos or echo chambers and getting to know folks we might not otherwise encounter. As we prepare to count our blessings this Thanksgiving, I recall a nun who said, “the poor are objects until we discover our own poverty.” Huh? I think Jesus is shining a light on this point when he teaches: “Blessed are the poor in spirit” (Matt. 5:3). Poverty of spirit takes me right to the Prime Disciple, Mary. I cannot imagine Mary saying to God when her initial ministry on earth had ended, “I’m here! Wow, are you (God) lucky to have me! I deserve this and I demand that you admit me to Heaven. I am entitled to this New Life. I have earned this and you must let me in.” The Prime Disciple’s spirit, rather, is one of poverty and because she knows that eternal union with God is a sheer gift we call her “full of grace”: that is, full of gratitude and empty of ingratitude. Living in and living out of utter thankfulness is the blessing which the poor in spirit enjoy and so Jesus teaches us: “Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 5:3).
