You are the Salt of the Earth

Matthew 5:13
Welcome to St. Ann!

We’re so glad that you’re here. We strive to make all feel at home here and to build community.

Please let us know if we can assist you in any way.

SHIPWRECK – This Monday (Feb. 10) Catholics on the island of Malta will celebrate the Feast of the Shipwreck of St. Paul. This feast marks one of Paul’s multiple near-death experiences at sea: “Three times I was shipwrecked, I passed a night and a day on the deep” (2 Corinthians 11:25).

PLUMBING THE IMAGE – In another place, St. Paul writes, “Some have made a shipwreck of their faith” (1 Timothy 1:19). In every Catholic church I know of the section where the congregation is located is called “the nave” (Latin for ship or boat). Further, many of our places of worship are designed to suggest a ship (e.g., the ceilings of our own Churches and Chapel); however, the ship that is suggested is upside-down or wrecked! Perhaps this is to instruct us that we as a Church will be from time to time, beached, broken, unable to perform, wrecked, and not to lose faith or hope when we are going through such a period.

JOY – using the image of Robinson Crusoe, G.K. Chesterton wrote that after one has been shipwrecked, there comes the exploration, examination and identification of what has survived the storm. In this salvage operation we will find some things that are still working and other things that are broken; and even broken things can be re-used, re-purposed. Ship’s bells can turned over and become wash basins; shattered hulls can be refashioned into furniture; the lens from a broken compass can become a means to start a fire. In fact, Chesterton wrote that the experience that can be most truly described as joy is the transition from the wreck to the rescue. Whatever has survived the storm becomes precious and is treasured.

A TREASURE – We as the Church of Philadelphia have been in the midst of a great prolonged storm (safety of children, damaged trust, shaken confidence, criminal trials, possible civil litigation, questioning the integrity of priests, bishops, Cardinals and even Popes; closing and mergers of schools and parishes, and issues related to fiscal mismanagement). All that said, whatever is remains with us on the beach after this hurricane of horrors will be precious and treasured. One of these salvaged treasures is the Church’s charitable work to help those who are suffering.

By now each registered household in our parish should have received a packet in the mail describing the purpose and scope of the 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) and soliciting our support. I ask you to join me in supporting this most important fundraising effort of the year. Poverty, hunger and homelessness remain serious challenges in our five county Archdiocese and this year’s CCA goal of $12.5 million will help us reach out as the Body of Christ to bring the gift of hope to thousands of brothers and sisters. Thank you for considering this important request and know that the Catholic Charities Appeal is recognized as a non-profit institution and as such, all gifts are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. It has its own Employer Identification Number (EIN) and receives a separate financial audit. The Catholic Charities Appeal is powered by The Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia, an independent, nonprofit community foundation.

In 1981 in Baton Rouge, LA, Worldwide Marriage Encounter began to celebrate the second Sunday of February as World Marriage Sunday to “honor husband and wife as the foundation of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily married life.” This celebration has developed into World Marriage Week (Feb. 7-14). For more visit www.wmd.wwme.org

PRAYER FOR THE SICK – This Tuesday (Feb. 11)---on the occasion of the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes—the Catholic Church will celebrate the 28th annual World Day of Prayer for the Sick.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated within this Tuesday’s 8:00 AM Mass in Chapel.

ST. VALENTINE - Once again, we encounter a celebration which has been cut off from its religious roots. What is it in us that resists preserving and nurturing the religious content of celebrations such as: Christmas (“Happy Holidays”); Easter (becoming Bunny-ized); All Hallows Eve (celebrating Spiderman but no saint)? Whence the source of such unease with the Holy? What gets lost when we allow the core meaning of our religious feasts to be diluted? The story goes that Valentine was a bishop who wrote love letters to his people from prison. Now, each one of us is in “prison” in the sense that we deal with the limits to our freedom and our desires. We pace the cage. How do I handle the limits that I have to deal with? Do I respond with faith? With love? With solicitude for others? This Friday (Feb. 14) enjoy the chocolates, the flowers, the cards, the exchange of gifts, and by all means wear something red. But also dare to disturb the universe: Pray for the grace to face our limits; pray for the grace to let go of any bitterness regarding our limits; pray that the experience of our own limits will help us be more understanding of and present to others in their limitations. May God grant us the courage to change the things we can, the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, and the wisdom to know the difference---with the sort of love made visible in the life of the martyr Saint Valentine.
Knights of Columbus
Spaghetti Dinner
On Saturday, February 15, 2020, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. the Knights of Columbus will be serving a Spaghetti Dinner at Sacred Heart Church Cafe, Lewis Road & Walnut St. (the cafe is under the church). The meal will include a salad, spaghetti and meatballs, or cheese ravioli, bread and butter, a drink, and dessert. The cost of the meal will be as follows: adults $12, children 5-12 $7, children 5 under eat free. "The Big Italian" dinner features extra pasta (spaghetti or ravioli- your choice) and meatballs for $15. Tickets will be sold at the door on the night of the dinner. Take-outs are available.

12th Annual Man Up Philly
Men’s Spirituality Conference-March 7, 2020
No Greater Love – Sacrifice Over Self
The men of our parish are invited to join Catholic Men from throughout the Archdiocese for the 12th Annual Man Up Philly Men’s Conference on March 7th at Neumann University. Speakers include Immaculee Ilibagiza, acclaimed speaker and author of Left to Tell surviving the Rwandan genocide, Brent Celek, former Eagles star tight end and Superbowl LII champion, Steve Bollman, Catholic speaker and founder of This Man is You, and back by popular demand, Mark Forrest, internationally recognized Irish tenor, who will lead our Eucharistic Adoration. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available, and the Conference will conclude with Mass celebrated by the Most Reverend Archbishop Charles Chaput. For more information and to register go to the website: www.manupphilly.com

Food Pantry News: The St. Ann food pantry for February will be held on the fourth Sunday, Feb. 23. We will return to our usual third Sunday in March. Thank you to all who have generously donated to help our parishioners and friends in need. A very special thanks to the O’Neill family, who requested memorial donations for Josie O’Neill to be directed to the food pantry in lieu of flowers. These wonderful donations have helped us restock badly needed items. However, we continue to seek these top items: laundry detergent, paper towels, cooking oil, juice, bagged (dry) black beans, white rice, pancake mix & syrup, snacks, diapers (all sizes), baby wipes, toilet paper. Donations can be left anytime on the front porch of the parish office. We thank you!

Aid for Friends - If you can assist by creating single-serving meals with leftovers for the homebound in our community, you can pick up empty trays & supplies and then drop off meals on the back porch of 602 S. Main Street on Saturdays from 4:00 to 5:30 PM and Sundays from 8:00 AM to 12:30 PM. For more information, please call Kate at 610-933-3814.

Archdiocese of Philadelphia

February 9, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

At this time of year we’re asked to remember the priests who have offered their lives in the service to the Church in Philadelphia. Through their pastoral service and sacramental ministry, our priests have mediated Christ's presence to us and our world. In parish communities, schools, and institutions, they’ve served so that we might experience the enduring kindness of our God.

Many retired priests continue to help parishes with their pastoral ministry. Others, due to advanced age and declining health, have had to withdraw from active ministry. Many of our retired priests reside at Villa Saint Joseph, Darby and Regina Coeli, Warminster, where they continue to carry a message of hope to others by their lives of prayer and sacrifice. These priests now need care themselves.

Your financial support is urgently requested at this time of their life. The annual Collection for the Care of the Aging and Infirm Priests of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will be taken in all parishes on the weekend of February 15-16, 2020. This annual collection is an opportunity for the faithful to express their gratitude for the many blessings received through the lives of these good priests.

Your kindness will be remembered daily in my prayers. May God bless you and your loved ones for your generous response to this annual appeal.

Gratefully and with continued prayers for you.
+Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

Spring Break Pilgrimage Retreat

Single women ages 18 to 35 are invited to a Pilgrimage Retreat with weekend accommodations at St. Mary of Providence Retreat Center. The Pilgrimage will take us to the Philadelphia area shrines, having opportunities for prayer, reflection and presentations on the significance and inspiration of these Saints in our lives. For more information or to register contact: sisterbrendam@gmail.com or call 610-942-4166.

Sisters of Life at St. Joseph Church

Please join the Sisters of Life at St. Joseph Parish in Downingtown on Tuesday, March 10 at 7:00 p.m. The Sisters will lead us in a Rosary, followed by a talk. RSVPs are appreciated although not required. Contact Cathy at stjoesprolife@gmail.com or call (484) 206-5151 with any questions or to RSVP.

A freewill offering will be taken for the Sisters at the end of the night. Hope to see you there!
