COMING TO SEE, PART 1 – I frequently hear parents say how they are coming to see the truth of what they had heard all their lives, namely, that their children are gone from home before they (the parents) know it.

COMING TO SEE, PART 2 – About 30 years ago I heard that the purpose of Lent is Baptism. While it sounded true to me, I was not at that time in a position to see how or why it was true. Now years later, through grace, I have been led to the position from which I am able (a bit) to glimpse and to be grasped by the connection between Baptism and Lent. In our baptism we were sunk into Christ so that Christ might begin to sink into us, become part of us, become eventually the very heart of us. Most of us were relatively unconscious when we were sacramentally sunk into Christ as infants at the baptismal font, and the point is for us to become progressively more conscious of and conformed to the One in whom we “live and move and have our being” (Acts 17:28).

ANNUAL RENEWAL – For this reason our Tradition invites us each Easter Sunday, after having heard the Good News of the Resurrection again, for the first time—eg., as a 7 year old, or 23 year old, or 55 year old, or 92 year old—to stand on our own two feet and to make our own (as consciously as we are able at our current point in life) the promises that were made for us at our one Sacramental Baptism. Since this is such a big deal, our Tradition has developed an entire season called Lent to help us drill down into our souls and to prepare for this annual renewal of our Baptismal Focus and Commitment for the next twelve months of the journey.

LENT: GLOBAL

Christ calls us to grow in grace throughout our lives and so become the kind of persons who are able to see God and who want to accept the invitation to walk in the Light as disciples. And so we live each day on the road, open to repenting, to re-thinking what matters and adjusting our behavior accordingly. Such penitential living does not begin in Lent and is not confined to Lent; rather, during Lent we intensify or “take up a notch” our daily practice of the normal penitential actions of prayer, fasting and works of charity. Further, during Lent we practice such instruments of conversion and transformation in a more visibly communal manner with our sisters and brothers in the Body of Christ.

LENT: GLOBAL & NATIONAL

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.

Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light.

All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

All are encouraged to participate in Catholic Relief Services “Rice Bowl” which helps many hungry persons here in the Archdiocese as well as countless others throughout our nation and our world. You may pick up materials for this excellent Lenten Program from our Chapel shelves.

LENT: LOCAL CHURCH

The 2020 Archdiocesan Catholic Charities Appeal has begun and I encourage you to join me in making a sacrificial donation to this main annual collection to serve Jesus in “the least of our brothers and sisters” (Matthew 25:31 -48 in our five county Archdiocese.

LENT: PARISH

ASH WEDNESDAY COLLECTION – All donations received in our Services this Wednesday will go to our Parish Charity Fund.

LITTLE BLACK BOOKS – As you leave Mass today, please pick up a copy of the 2020 Little Black Books for Lent. Many of our members report how helpful they have found these books in their daily devotions and practice during Lent.

DIGITAL DIVES – Our parish subscription to FORMED opens to an ocean of developmentally appropriate resources for religious formation and for prayer. Additionally, you can have FLOCKNOTE delivered to you and join the 668 households who are inspired several times a week by this resource.

SPECIAL PROGRAM – “FORGIVEN: The Transforming Power of Confession” Join us for a 3 -week, video-based study. Forgiven is a beautiful presentation of the transforming power of Confession. No matter what you have done, no matter how long you have been away, Jesus is waiting for you in the Sacrament of Reconciliation! Join us from 8:30 AM to 9:30 AM on Thursday, March 12, 19, and 26th in the Church Hall to view a 20 minute video followed by a discussion. Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP by Monday, March 9th to Madelyn Howard at 484 -302-5705 or stannadulted@gmail.com.

Safe Haven Sunday—Equipping the Family: Having Critical Conversations
The most powerful tool we have when it comes to teaching our children about the beauty of their sexuality in the digital age is conversation. Real, honest, “look them in the eyes” conversations about their deep questions. In the digital age, passive parenting is not an option—the internet never rests. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is setting aside this weekend, February 22-23 to celebrate our second annual Safe Haven Sunday in order to provide free resources to assist you with confidently talking to your children about internet dangers, as well as their online and offline choices. Safe Haven Sunday is celebrated through prayer and reflection within the context of the Mass. Copies of Covenant Eyes’ most recent book, Confident: Helping Parents Navigate Online Exposure are available on chapel shelves. This book includes a free seven-day text-to-opt-in program that provides practical tips for caring adults to create safer digital environments for themselves and young people. Simply text SECURE to 66866 to begin receiving guidance today! Thank you for celebrating with us!
