The Common Good – The other day I had a conversation with a good young man about receiving Holy Communion on the tongue. I listened, honored his perspective, affirmed that he would be welcome to receive Our Lord as he desired once the archdiocese gave the go-ahead. I then said, you know it’s not just about the communicant; there is also the minister of communion’s safety and comfort threshold to consider. The parishioner said that he had not considered the other person in this Eucharistic encounter and he readily saw that the other person also needed to be heard and related to with the same respect that was due to himself. What enabled this exchange not to fall in violent thoughts, feelings or words was the spirit with which (and within which) the conversation took place—a spirit of mutual and equal respect. A Holy Spirit. I sometimes imaged the Holy Spirit as the Graced Gyroscope that keeps us simultaneously united, separated and graceful as we dance through our day.

TRINITY SUNDAY – Today we are celebrating the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity in whose image we are created, in whose image we are to live, and into whose image we are to grow through grace. Since we are made in the image of a Triune God then we are designed and destined to be individuals-in-relationship. On the one hand, we can lose balance when we become so ruggedly individualistic that we live in excessive isolation even in the midst of family—untouched and untouched. On the other hand, we can distort the image of God when we become connected-to-a-fault by losing ourselves in the other or in the group. St. Irenaeus (d. 202) wrote that “the glory of God is a person who is fully alive, and that fullness of life consists in the contemplation of God.” Today we are contemplating expressly the mystery of the Triune God, and in such contemplation of the Divine Dance that is the Trinity the path to fullness of life is revealed.

St. Basil the Great (d. 379) wrote, “Through the Spirit we become citizens of heaven, we are admitted to the company of the angels, we enter into eternal happiness and abide in God. Through the Spirit we acquire a likeness to God; indeed, we attain what is beyond our most sublime aspirations—we become God.” And what is God like most deeply? And what are we through grace to become?

Vulnerability – Jesus is “the image of the invisible God” (Colossians 1:15) and in what is perhaps the deepest, most startling, most revolutionary revelation about God is that the Most Holy Trinity is not only “all powerful and eternal” but also all vulnerable and in time”!

HOWARD THURMAN (d. 1981) wrote: “What had I learned about love? One of the central things was that the experience of being understood by another was of primary importance. Somewhere deep within was a “place” beyond all faults and virtues that had to be confirmed before I could run the risk of opening my life up to another. To find ultimate security in an ultimate vulnerability, this is to be loved.

SHARED VULNERABILITY – May the Covid 19 virus soon be cured and may our world become a more perfect union through this experience. That said, the path to a better and more perfect union passes through the place where we mount the Cross and risk vulnerability and so live more fully in the image of the Trinitarian God.

“We’d rather be ruined than change. We’d rather die in our dread than mount the cross of the moment and let our illusions die.” These words from W. H. Auden remind of me some other words found in a Christian hymnbook: “We all have secret fears to face, our minds and motives to amend. We seek your truth, we need your grace, Our Living Lord and present Friend.”

HAPPY FEASTDAY – Today we remember in a particular way all those who have religious roots in Holy Trinity Church on Dayton Street.

FIRSTBORN OF CREATION – Jesus is not only “the firstborn of his brothers” (Rm. 8:29) but He is also the “firstborn of all creation for in him all things were created...all things we created through him and for him...in him all things hold together...he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead...” (Colossians 1:15-18). After the Ascension of Jesus, creation has entered into the Creator! The mission of Jesus is way bigger than just saving us from our sins.
The mission of Jesus is about restoring all creation into right relationship with the Father.

LAUDATO SI YEAR – Pope Francis has just invited all people of good will to begin an entire year of focused reflections and cooperative actions for the care of our common home. What Pope Francis, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I and other religious leaders want us to face prior to and bigger than politics and ideologies. They want us to ground all of our decisions in nature, to consider the effects of our decisions on nature and on our least buffered neighbors: the poor and voiceless. The one who’s got the world in His hands expects and enables us to lend our hands to His.

PARISH OFFICE TO RE-OPEN Tomorrow, June 8, our parish office will resume its normal business hours (8:00 AM to 4:00 PM). FYI - We need anyone coming into the office to wear a mask.

“WHATSOEVER YOU DO...”

Caring for Friends (formerly Aid for Friends) is a wonderfully simple program connecting meal providers with those suffering from food insecurity. Our Caring for Friends freezer will be available as it always had been in the back room of 602 S. Main Street on Saturdays from 4:00 to 6:00 PM and on Sundays from 7:00 AM through 1:00 PM. For information contact Kate Commiskey at call (610) 933-3814 or katecommiskey@msn.com

PACS - Please consider supporting Phoenixville Area Community Services (PACS), our local food pantry as they are in great need of assistance. For more information contact melissa.threadgill@pacsphx.org or phone (610) 933-1105. To volunteer with PACS go here: https://www.pacsphx.org/become-a-volunteer/

MEALS FOR SENIORS – Shelf-stable meals for Seniors (age 60+) are available for home delivery through the Phoenixville Senior Center (153 Church ST). You can stop delivery anytime but it is suggested that you consider storing some meals for possible future food shortage.

For more information contact Joann McCracken at 484-262-9127 or at joann@phoenixvilleseniorcenter.org.

The Chester County Food Bank sponsors Fresh2U program which brings fresh affordable produce to several sites in our county from June through November. The PHX site is the parking lot on Church Street between Senior Center and the Clinic on from 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM on Wednesdays starting June 3.

“GIVING HOPE TO ALL” – is the theme of the 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal. This annual appeal is our main corporate effort as the Body of Christ in the five counties of the Archdiocese to serve hundreds of thousands of our neighbors in need of material and social assistance. For more visit www.catholiccharitiesappeal.org
Thank You - Thank you for your continued, faithful financial support of our parish at this challenging time. For the duration of this crisis, I ask you to consider mailing your church envelopes to the parish or placing your donations in the bin marked “Office Correspondence” located on the front porch of our office (502 S. Main ST).

ONLINE GIVING - Parishioners and friends of our parish can now make one-time or recurring gifts directly on our parish website. Stop worrying about weekly envelopes or mailing in special donations. Instead, give a gift at any time (from any device that connects to the internet) using a current email and checking account or credit card. It’s simple and secure.

We love having you as part of our flock! Let’s keep in touch! Get important Parish & Ministry updates via email & text. There are two ways to connect. Visit our church at: flocknote.com/StAnnPhx or Text Stannphx to 84576 from your phone to subscribe to updates.
