ALTARED CONSCIOUSNESS – “Altered states of consciousness” is an expression we use occasionally. Our mental states may be altered by: foods, moods, drugs, chemicals, hormones, music, the Phillies, the weather, etc. and this year in particular by the Covid-19 Pandemic and its restrictions. Our coming to the Altar each Sunday, however, is intended to effect an altered state of soul so that we see, judge and act as the Lord sees, judges and acts. Our being “in the Lord”, our Holy Communion with and in Him, have the express purpose of transfiguring our perspectives, judgments and actions. As we say in each Mass: “Taught by our Savior’s command and formed by Divine Teaching we dare to pray,” Our Father…”. To resist rigid, harsh and knee-jerk polarizations in our culture can be a bit daunting and even daring.

ST. DOMINIC – This Saturday (Aug. 8) we will commemorate Dominic de Guzman (d. 1221). Struck by clerical corruption and by the pastoral neglect of ordinary people, Dominic was transfigured, put in motion, by grace. He adopted a simple lifestyle, even to the extent of walking barefoot from place to place as he and his companions preached and taught. Hundreds of year later, his graced transfiguration continues in the Order of Preachers (nicknamed the Dominicans).

PARISH PROTOCOLS & ETIQUETTE
Thank you for your good spirit and cooperation as we continue to navigate the uncharted waters of the Covid-19 pandemic.

As we resume our 7:30 AM Sunday Mass this week, please take note that we are still asking you to reserve your seat(s) for a given Mass. In this way we can both protect the health of our parishioners and also avoid turning worshippers away when they arrive for Mass on Sunday. So far we have not had to turn any worshipper away, but if we reach our chapel’s safe seating capacity it will be better (I think) to have informed people beforehand so that they can deal with that week’s disappointment before arriving at chapel for Mass on Sunday.

UPDATE ABOUT SEATING CAPACITY – As we continue to navigate the uncharted waters of the Covid-19 Pandemic we are learning that we can probably Congratulations and prayers from our Saint Ann family to the parents and family of our parish children who will receive Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament this weekend:
