

Catholic Charities is expecting as many as 8 Afghan families to be arriving in the next several weeks. These families are arriving on a Humanitarian Parole Visa, which means that they will not have access to many of the services that are provided to other refugees.

The Rapid Refugee Assistance Support Team, an experienced team of organizers, working under the guidance of Commonwealth Catholic Charities is seeking material and physical support for Afghan refugees coming to Hampton Roads.

How can you help??? Here are a few ways to help...

Give:

From what you have and don't need or want to purchase new:

Labor:

We need a team of people with trucks, vans, trailers and/or muscles who can pick up and move furniture etc. on a few days' notice.

Future Needs:

Transportation to grocery stores, classes, doctors etc. until they are settled!

Bus training... Ride the bus with the family and teach them how to navigate in Hampton Roads!
