Each of us has his/her own unique spiritual journey. Some, for whatever reasons, have chosen pathways separate from Christ and His Church. Whatever these reasons may be, if and when you are ready to consider a return, please know that we extend the Lord’s welcome to come home!

You are missed! You are valued! You are one of us!

REST IN PEACE - Sharon Lowney, Betty Schirmer, Dr. Frank Cook, and Grace Lewis
May they rest in God’s peace and may their families be strengthened in faith.

RESPECT LIFE - All of us must care for life, cherish life, with tenderness, warmth...to give life is to open (our) heart, and to care for life is to (give oneself) in tenderness and warmth for others, to have concern in my heart of others. Caring for life from the beginning to the end, what a simple thing, what a beautiful thing...So, go forth and don’t be discouraged. Care for life. It’s worth it.

(Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio (now Pope Francis)
That those in active pro-life ministry rely on prayer and sacrifice to help them achieve their goals, we pray!

“CARING FRIENDS” - Are you in need of a Caring Friend to do your grocery shopping or to take you to a doctor’s appointment or to visit with your homebound loved one while you run a few errands, please call Bill, 744-0066. We will try our best to help. Volunteers are needed to provide relief for caregivers. If you can help, please call Bill.

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister.
COME TO THE FEAST

“On this mountain, the Lord of hosts / will provide for all peoples / a feast of rich food and choice wines” (Isaiah 25:6). That’s what Isaiah tells us today. God is putting together a huge party for “all peoples,” to “wipe away / the tears from every face” (Isaiah 25:8).

And what does Jesus tell us? The reign of God, he says, “may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son” (Matthew 22:2). When the guests didn’t come, the king had his servants go out “into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find” (Matthew 22:9). We are called to deliver that invitation.

One of the themes woven into today’s liturgy is that of divine generosity. Asleep to reality, people often think they have “earned” what they have. In our better moments, though, we know that all our gifts—even the spiritual gifts—come through God’s generosity. Our vocation is to invite people, to remind them the tickets aren’t for sale. We can only show up and say thank you.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen.

Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

“Today vast numbers of people still do not know Jesus Christ.” Pope Francis begins his message for this year’s celebration of World Mission Sunday with these words. But he quickly offers us the way to make a joy-filled, life-giving difference in this regard. “World Mission Sunday is a privileged moment when the faithful of various continents engage in prayer and concrete gestures of solidarity in support of the young Churches in mission lands.”

On October 18 & 19, our diocesan family celebrates this “privileged moment;” let us join our brothers and sisters around the world who will gather at the Lord’s Table to celebrate, with great joy, our common vocation as missionaries. Our prayers and concrete gestures of solidarity will help build local churches, like the church in Mongolia, the world’s youngest Catholic Church, and churches across the globe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God’s love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Your financial help on World Mission Sunday, offered in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will support the 1,150 young mission dioceses and communities who await the “Good News” of Jesus as their saving hope.

Pope Francis encourages us to take joyful part in the Church’s mission to all the nations, as we live our lives grounded in love for Jesus and concern for the needs of the most disadvantaged. May World Mission Sunday offer each one of us an opportunity to accomplish both, as we share the joy of the Gospel and help the poor by our fervent prayer and through generous hearts!

For more about this important celebration of the universal Church, please visit the special World Mission Sunday web site: www.IAmAMissionary.org.

With gratitude and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Lights, Camera, Action!!

This is a ‘curtain call’ to all Altar Servers, current and the recent past!

As you know, Altar Servers are a vital part of the Mass. Since we are blessed to have such inspirational servers we are asking for your help.

Please choose the top three, parts of the Mass, that you are most confident to ‘act and record’ for a training film. Please email to let us know which parts you will be demonstrating, with permission from your parents of course, and we will let you know when filming begins.

Our priests and deacons will choose the servers that best illustrate each part of the Mass, for teaching purposes, for the final production.

Please call Kate, in the office, with any questions.

An Altar Server Appreciation Mass was held last Saturday, at the Cathedral of St. Ignatius. Bishop Barbarito presided over a beautiful Mass recognizing the Altar Servers from parishes in our Diocese.

Thank you, Matthew Watts, Crystal Pauldo, Bridget Forgatch, Gi Gi Giliberti and Mallory Forgatch, for representing St. Paul of the Cross.
Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus told a parable about a king who invites many people to a feast for his son’s wedding.

Is 25:6-10  Ps 23:1-6  Phil 4:12-14, 19-20  Mt 22:1-14

The Lord’s banquet can satisfy our every need. How often have we refused His invitation by our actions or lack of actions?

Directions: Complete the two sentences.

1. I will do my best to stop ____________________________ because I know this behavior is wrong.

2. I will do my best to start ____________________________ because I know this would please God.
