Each of us has our own unique spiritual journey. Some have chosen pathways separate from Christ and His Church. Whatever the reasons may be, if and when you are ready to consider a return, please know that we extend the Lord’s welcome to come home! You are missed! You are valued! You are one of us!

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA
THE TEMPLE AND WORSHIP

In all of today’s readings, the temple is prominently mentioned. Ezekiel speaks of streams of living water flowing out from the temple, watering the desert, bringing life to all living things, offering fresh healing to God’s people.

Paul reminds the Corinthians that their faith rests upon the firmest of foundations, Christ himself. More than that, Paul reveals that those who follow Christ are themselves temples, temples of the Holy Spirit; that is, God dwells not only with them, but in them.

For the Jews of Jesus’ time, the temple had come to be identified with the presence of God and the only place where authentic worship of God took place. Jesus had a different perception. Jesus identified himself not with the temple, but as the temple. In so doing, Jesus indicated a dramatic shift in what it means to worship God, to be in God’s presence. No longer was a place to be the focus of prayer. Instead, a person, the person of Jesus Christ, becomes the center of our worship.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all Your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Paul told the Corinthians that he was like a master builder (1 Corinthians 3:9c–11, 16–17). He had laid the foundation of Jesus Christ for them, and another person was building upon it. We should always be building our faith, too.

Think about the spiritual tools of prayer, scripture, community, and good works as you use the picture clues to complete the crossword below.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. This Basilica is the cathedral of Rome, often thought of as the Pope’s cathedral, and historically has been viewed as the “mother of all churches of Rome and the world.” As such, it is a sacred place in our tradition.

"Where two or three are gathered in My name, I am there among them.”

Matthew 18:20

Do you have a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother? You can live it out! Join in the prayer of the rosary on Tuesdays after the 8:30am or 5:00pm mass.

Blessings,
Legion of Mary
