THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT
THE PATH TO FREEDOM

Most of us, if we were asked “Does the phrase ‘the Ten Commandments’ appear in the Bible?” would likely get it wrong, because the answer is “no.” “The Ten Commandments” is a post-biblical phrase that developed along with an image of God as a police officer that is not found in today’s passage from Exodus. The first phrase is the key: God is the one who brings us out of slavery; following God’s law or commands is our path to freedom. The moneychangers whom Jesus drove from the temple were not explicitly breaking any of the commandments, but neither were they helping people to find God’s path to freedom as they came to worship at the temple. This is an important Lenten lesson for us. We need to stop asking ourselves whether or not we are breaking specific rules or regulations and instead examine our lives to see if we are truly following a path to God’s freedom through Christ.

FAMILIES AND LENT
Here are some ways you can pray during Lent and all through the year.

♦ Start everyday by making the Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Ask God to stay with you throughout the day.

♦ Visit your church on a day other than Sunday to talk with God about whatever you want.

♦ Make a list of people who need prayers, and pick one to pray for each day. (Start with your parents, family, priests, the pope, people in the hospital.)

♦ Every night before you go to sleep, think back on your day. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you how God was part of it. If you made mistakes, ask for God’s help so you can do better tomorrow.

PRAY FAST GIVE

Participating in Lent, we are engaging in patterns that have endured across the centuries. From very early times, we have the sense of accompanying the elect on their journey to the font. From as long ago as the fourth century, we receive Lent as forty days to shake the dust from our spirituality and reorder our conduct. Then, fasting was not seen as a strict duty, yet it seems it was widely observed. Think of the rules of politeness and courtesy that everyone agrees on. Fasting was also seen as a social duty, since food was in short supply as winter wore on, and the weak and the sick had the first claim on what remained on hand.

As a boost to the fasting of the body, the church developed a richer spiritual fare, including celebration of the Eucharist every day. This practice began in Rome by the sixth century. Weekday Mass was only at designated “stations.” The pope would arrive on horseback at the stational church. In those days, although the catechumenate was already in eclipse, there were pre-baptismal activities at the stational Masses: the giving of the Lord’s Prayer, prayers for the godparents, and constant references to baptism.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
NATIONAL CATHOLIC SISTERS WEEK - We remember and honor the sisters who faithfully served in our Parish and all religious women who work throughout our Diocese and the world.

Gracious and all-loving God, we thank you that You call us to be one with You and to be, in every way of life, doers of Your Word and not hearers only.

In this National Catholic Sisters Week, we celebrate women religious who consecrate their lives in poverty, celibacy and obedience. We thank you for their character, courage and commitment to live in solidarity with those who live in poverty and suffer violence in everyday living. Your love and grace inspire them.

Their joy and total generosity inspire us. May religious life abound in vitality so that the boundless power of your love and care will be known more and more throughout our world.

We ask this in Jesus' name and the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Third Sunday of Lent
Once when Jesus was in Jerusalem, he found animals being sold in the Temple. He sent the sellers away because he wanted the Temple to be his Father’s house of prayer, not a store. Look at both pictures. Circle five extra things in the bottom one.
