RITES OF

The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ’s Passion and approaching crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment. Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
THE NEW COVENANT

When the prophet Jeremiah coined the term “new covenant” he was actually doing something quite radical. For the Jewish people, there was only one covenant, the one made between the Lord God and Israel through Moses at Mount Sinai. For Jeremiah to suggest that God would somehow supersede the covenant with a new one would have sounded audacious to Jewish ears. But in this way he is a predecessor of Jesus who, in the Gospel of John, is continually portrayed as superseding the past, establishing the reign of God in a new way. And in today’s Gospel passage, Jesus the “new covenant” speaks the language of his “new commandment” of love when he tells of the dying grain of wheat, and of our own need to die to self in order to be raised with Christ. As Lent ends and we prepare to enter into Holy Week, the dying grain of wheat serves as an excellent symbol of the kind of dying and self-sacrifice to which disciples are called, a symbol of that new covenant written deep within our hearts.

Families and Lent

Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her. John 8:7

Contrary to the premise that “words will never hurt me,” lives have been ruined by words. Rumors, false witness, and mockery are all stones that can destroy happiness, freedom, or reputation. Jesus reminds us that no one is guiltless, so no one can throw stones of rock or words.

Activity: Put a large stone in the middle of the table, then go around the circle and name words that hurt and words that heal.

Prayer: Forgiving God, heal us of our cruelty and open our eyes to the harm and the good that our words can do in the world.

Chrism Mass

As part of Holy Week, on March 31st at 11 AM at the cathedral of St. Ignatius Loyola, the Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito, Bishop of the Diocese of PB, will celebrate the traditional Catholic Chrism Mass with priests from the Diocese of Palm Beach. During the Chrism Mass, Bishop Barbarito will bless the three oils that will be used for sacramental purposes during the next year. In addition to the blessing, the priests will renew their vows and those with significant ordination anniversaries will be recognized.

As we approach Holy Week, the creative juices of the ancient church of Jerusalem begin to shape our journey. In old Jerusalem at this season of the year, the attempt was made to recall the events leading up to Christ’s passion. Those attempts were based not only on time, with celebrations of events as close to the day and hour as possible, but also on people’s best guesses as to the actual place of these events. Vast numbers of pilgrims flooded the city during the forty days of Lent, many of them catechumens in their last stages of preparation for initiation. The fourth-century Spanish nun Egeria wrote a delightfully detailed diary of her experience of this lively and aerobic liturgy, which involved hearty singing, strong preaching, and nimble processions across vast and arduous terrain.

Much of this energy was lost over the centuries, with the procession of palms a noteworthy exception. Northern climates had to reinterpret this Jerusalem liturgy, using forsythia, willow, or olive branches, but to this day the entry into Holy Week by a community on the move accompanied by joyful song hearkens back to a venerable tradition. Egeria’s letters were rediscovered a little more than a hundred years ago, but they reveal a pattern of prayer: full, conscious, active participation, to which we have a right and a duty.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Fifth Sunday of Lent
Let's find out what happens when we serve Jesus.
Use a different color to trace each of the three sets of arrows that point in the same direction. Read each set in order. Which set tells us something Jesus said about serving him? You can read John 12:26 in your Bible for help. Put a star on each of these arrows!
