Each of us has our own unique spiritual journey.
Some have chosen pathways separate from Christ and His Church.
Whatever the reasons may be, if and when you are ready to consider a return, please know that we extend the Lord’s welcome to come home!
You are missed! You are valued! You are one of us!

RITES OF

The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ’s Passion and approaching crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment. Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD
PROPHETIC ANOINTING

The solemnity of today’s readings invites us into silent contemplation of the mystery of our redemption. There are so many levels on which to understand the events of the Passion. The woman who anoints Jesus acts prophetically in a way that the other disciples do not yet grasp. Anointing is for priests, prophets, and kings, and also for the preparation of the dead. It is for healing and for holiness. Her action acknowledges the imminent events of the passion and death of the Lord, and points toward his resurrection and triumph over evil and death. He is priest and victim, prophet and God, King and Lord. All these things are acknowledged in her prophetic anointing.

Families and Holy Week
The Willing Hardship of Hospitality

You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. John 12:8

When there is a special guest in our homes, members of the household typically make accommodations. Hospitality requires that our visitors be given the use of someone’s room or bed or place at the table. Normal activities are put on hold and sacrifices are made that represent a willing hardship.

Jesus is the ultimate guest who comes to our homes in the person of every visitor. Ironically, it is the poor who often make the most generous sacrifices, giving from their want, to welcome both divine and human guests. They place the riches of communion over money.

Activity: Set an empty place at table as a sign of commitment to welcome Christ in all we meet.

Prayer: Lord, we see your face in every visitor. May we welcome you, knowing that by hospitality we sometimes entertain angels.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Is today “Palm Sunday” or “Passion Sunday”? Though now known officially as Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, confusion is understandable, since before the 1969 reform of the calendar two separate Sundays bore these titles. Passion Sunday was a week before Palm Sunday. To add to the confusion, the Gospel accounts of the Passion of the Lord were not read on Passion Sunday, but on Palm Sunday! On Passion Sunday, the cross and statues were veiled in full purple drapes. The organ had fallen silent at the beginning of Lent, and now the sanctuary bells were replaced by wooden clappers. The introit (opening chant) for the old Mass of Passion Sunday hints at a reason for reform: “Do me justice, O God, and fight against a faithless people” (Psalm 42). This liturgy was laden with references to the “infidelity” of the Jews, a theme that gave rise to inflammatory preaching and, in some places, attacks against the persons and property of the Jewish people. This does not stand as a “treasure” of any sort in our tradition. Our authentic tradition, rather, is the ability to reflect and repent and to seek reconciliation with the Jews, our brothers and sisters in the love and service of God.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
