THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
THANKSGIVING

The word “thanksgiving” most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord’s Supper as “food we call ‘thanksgiving’” (in Greek eucharistia).

The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The “thanksgiving” that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ’s body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord’s Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

REST IN PEACE -
Donna Chisholm, Bunny Hess,
May they rest in God’s peace and may their family be strengthened in faith.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL will take place next weekend. Many dioceses right here in the United States do not have enough priests and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training. Please be generous in this appeal and share your resources to strengthen the Church at home.

Safety Tips for Kids & Families

Family outings to parks may be wonderful opportunities for family members to bond and spend quality time together. How can you keep your kids safe?
The Diocesan Office of Safe Environments provides safety tips to keep children safe in amusement or theme parks, when home alone, and online.
Here’s just some of the valuable resources and tips you’ll find:

- Park Safety: What to tell your children before you go to the amusement park & what you as parent/guardian need to do once there.
- KidSmartz: educates families about preventing abduction and empowers kids in grades K-5 to practice safer behaviors.

Visit the Office of Safe Environments resource page at www.diocesepb.org/resources or call for information: 561-775-9593.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
