FATHERS DAY SPIRITUAL BOUQUET CARDS

On Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Old Testament reading is selected for the light it sheds on the day’s Gospel. Today, Ezekiel sees God lifting up the lowly tree and making the withered tree bloom. So in the second parable of today’s Gospel, Jesus encourages us by promising that, as fragile seeds grow into an abundant harvest, and the tiniest mustard seed into a hearty plant, so God will grow the kingdom from small beginnings to an instrument of salvation for all. In the first parable, the land yields fruit “of its own accord” (Mark 4:28). Not only is the initiative God’s, but the parable teaches that the seed’s growth, though invisible at first, is actually unstoppable! To be sure, those who depend on the impressive or dramatic in order to be convinced or encouraged will be disappointed in the slow unfolding of the kingdom that Jesus announces. But for those who do accept the kingdom, all is grace, and that grace is certain.

Though the second reading is not coordinated with either the first reading or Gospel on these Sundays, today’s is thematically appropriate. Saint Paul argues that our experience of God’s trustworthiness thus far should make us a people of undaunted courage and unshakeable faith. But at the same time Paul warns that faith should also make us aware of our responsibility to do good.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
Bishop Gerald Barbarito joins his brother bishops of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in encouraging Catholic dioceses and parishes across the country to raise awareness for domestic and international religious freedom concerns during the fourth annual Fortnight for Freedom: Freedom to Bear Witness that begins on Sunday, June 21, and ends on Saturday, July 4 – Independence Day. The two-week celebration will focus on the theme Freedom to Bear Witness to the truth of the Gospel, and will emphasize the freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable with human dignity and the Church’s teaching.

The bishops ask the faithful to Pray, Educate, and Take Action for the protection of the conscience rights of all.

The USCCB website hosts many resources in English and Spanish to help the faithful as they observe the Fortnight. The resources are available for people and parishes. Here are just a few of the items you will find on the USCCB’s Fortnight web pages found at www.Fortnight4Freedom.org
