TRADITION

Tradition is long human memory set, not in stone, but in human interaction. Without this active memory, the bonds of relationship and affection fray and fall apart. Communities dissolve as surely as neglected buildings do. After participating in events, celebrations, and even small rituals, we remark about how good it is to gather and remember.

Today’s readings remind us of foundations laid deeper than the human will to relate. Today we hear about God’s will to relate to us—to be our God as we are called to be God’s own beloved people.

Today in three readings and three ways we remember the covenant bonds that create us as a people and the obligation and responsibility that express the innermost attitude of soul. You are mine. I am yours. These are God’s words that created a people as surely as “Let there be light” created the sun and moon and all the stars.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

A New Catholic Radio Station
There’s a new faith-based Catholic radio station in Palm Beach County -- WPBV-FM 98.3 -- the "Catholic Voice of the Palm Beaches. The station can be heard over the radio by nearly 200,000 listeners according to estimates by the station’s engineer. The low-power station’s signal can be heard from Tequesta to the north, to south of 45th Street to the south, and to the west as far as the Beeline Highway. Furthermore, the station can be listened to via the internet through its website and mobile app. For now, 24/7 programming is broadcast by virtue of a feed from the EWTN Global Catholic Radio Network but some local programming will be added in the near future. Listen live at 98.3 FM or at www.WPBVRadio.com

WPBV-FM radio joins two other Catholic radio stations located in the diocese: WJPP-FM 100.1 in Palm City and WDMC in Melbourne. (www.divinemercyradio.com)
