TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
GOD’S WORK OF SALVATION

God’s work of salvation is the focus of this weekend’s readings. From the prophetic event of Isaiah to Jesus’ understanding of the human condition in Hebrews, concluding with Jesus paying our ransom in Mark, God is in control. There may be failings and misunderstandings along the way. We may move away from God, but at our conversion, God leads us back. Like James and John, we may let greed and power blur our vision of what Jesus wants us to know about the Kingdom; but tirelessly we are taught and re-taught what life in the Kingdom will be. Jesus has paid our ransom to ensure that we will share in the Kingdom.

It is not unusual to think of Jesus’ ransom as a punishment that he endured. However, it is more accurate, and more like Jesus, for us to recognize ransom as God’s gift to us.

To prepare for the Readings of October 24/25

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers:

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS
Feast Day October 20th
The founder of the Passionists and our patron saint, St. Paul of the Cross was born in Ovada, Italy in 1694, the eldest of six children surviving from a family of fifteen. As a child, he knew the hardship, uncertainty and fear brought about by widespread poverty to families like his. As a young man, Paul experienced a call from God. For the rest of his long life of 81 years, he would remind the disheartened people of his time of the passion of Jesus of God’s wisdom and love. Great numbers of people were led from fear to trust and faith in God through Paul’s guidance and preaching. He taught people to pray and was an outstanding guide in helping people make decisions.
We invite you to pray and to direct others to St. Paul of the Cross for guidance and direction in God’s ways during these difficult times; he helps those who are discouraged and uncertain.

O good St. Paul of the Cross, you proclaimed God’s wonders in the Passion of God’s only Son. By word and deed, you became a spiritual guide and preacher of the Gospel to a world grown cold to the love of Jesus Christ. Help me to see God’s love in the merciful cross of Jesus, and teach me to trust in the blessings God gives. May the Passion of Jesus be in my heart, and bring life to all the world. Amen.

Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call. We pray!
