THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TRUE BLINDNESS

Barthmaeus caused a stir. Normally he sat by the side of the road being a “good blind beggar.” But one day Jesus passed nearby. Barthmaeus jumped up and called out to Jesus. We can imagine him turning toward the direction of the commotion and noise. Barthmaeus probably had his arms outstretched as he shouted out to the son of David.

The people who knew him were embarrassed by his outburst. They tried to hush him up and get him to sit back down by the roadside. Their actions spoke volumes: “Barthmaeus, you’re not fit for Jesus.” But it was okay for them and other “sighted” people to follow Jesus.

In today’s readings, we learn that true blindness is not a condition of our eyes but of our hearts.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

You were created by God for a noble and passionate purpose. You aren’t meant to just float through life. You are meant to flourish to such a degree that you set the world on fire! The most important step in the search for significance is to know the One who created us. As we grow in our understanding of who He is and what He considers most important, we are set free to flourish and thrive. Join Lisa Brenninkmeyer, founder of Walking with Purpose and the author of six Bible studies and the book Walking with Purpose, as she explores how God defines success and significance.
