The Holy Spirit
descended upon him
in bodily form
like a dove.
And a voice
came from heaven,
You are my beloved Son;
with you I am well pleased.”

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD
MANIFESTING THE SPIRIT

The Christmas season closes this Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. This feast is a sister to last week’s feast of the Epiphany. Each of them celebrates an “epiphany,” or a manifestation of the Spirit of God in Jesus—first in his birth, and now at his baptism.

The divine Spirit is manifested in all of the scriptures for this feast. Psalm 104 highlights the Spirit of God creating and renewing the earth, while the reading from Isaiah describes God restoring Israel. In Luke’s account of the baptism of the Lord the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus. And the letter to Titus reminds us that the Holy Spirit was “richly poured out” on us also, through the “bath of rebirth” (Titus 3:5, 6).

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

MOMENTS OF MERCY
In Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis asks that we strive for our lives to be rooted in the mercy of God. One way we can grow in this mercy is by being receptive to the message of mercy and love that is proclaimed in the Scriptures and in the Christian witness to faith in Jesus (MV, no. 13).

1. Open yourself to listen to and hear the Word of God.
   a. Prepare your mind and your heart by entering into a quiet space and giving yourself time for reflection. This can be done individually or with others, such as your family or a small group in your parish.
2. Ask God to open your heart to receive His words of love into your life.
3. Read or listen to the Word of God.
   a. For example, read a passage from the Bible, participate in small-group lectio divina, or attend Mass and pay close attention to the readings during the Liturgy of the Word.
4. Reflect on/discuss what this passage reveals to you about God’s mercy and love.
5. Come up with one concrete way to incorporate this revelation of mercy into your daily actions or prayer life.

“It is a favorable time to heal wounds, a time to offer everyone the way of Forgiveness and Reconciliation.”

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The Catholic Church is proud of the rich heritage and tradition that our Catholic schools have provided in this nation. As we honor the great work of our schools during Catholic Schools Week beginning January 31, the annual collection in support of our Catholic schools will take place next weekend on January 16 and 17. This year’s theme, Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service, reflects well the goals for the diocese expressed in Charting a Course for Excellence: Strategic Vision 2020.

The Diocese of Palm Beach is blessed to have 19 Catholic schools and preschools with over 500 dedicated faculty and staff, who serve more than 6,000 students. In an effort to better inform you about the ministry of our Catholic schools, we have updated the Catholic School portion of the diocesan website and have increased the schools’ presence on social media. A five minute video about our schools is available at www.diocesepb.org/schools.

I have asked all of the children enrolled in our Catholic schools and their parents to wear “Ask Me About My Catholic School” buttons to Mass each weekend in January. I hope you will talk to our young people and their parents about our Catholic Schools and learn about the wonderful faith-filled education our children receive.

Last year your generous support provided $148,293.75 to fund scholarships for children who could not otherwise afford to attend Catholic schools, as well as other resources for our schools. Your continued support of our diocesan Catholic schools ensures that future generations will be molded to serve our community through their faith, knowledge and service.

With gratitude for your generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito Bishop of Palm Beach
