FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT
A SUNDAY FOR REJOICING

Today’s Gospel story of the prodigal son is a favorite of many. We can identify with all the major figures and their crisscross of emotions. The father’s initial grief over his young son’s arivace is turned to relief at his return. The son’s grief over his loss of fortune, family, and friends is turned to delirious joy at the sight of his father.

We understand the eldest son’s bewilderment over his father’s generosity. For the older son, virtue seems not to be its own reward. For all his honorable toil and loyalty, there seems to be no celebration. The father, however, is prodigal in his forgiveness and mercy. He expects the same generosity from his older son. He wants all to rejoice when the lost one is found.

This is a Sunday for rejoicing. It’s time to pause, consider, and encourage one another. We are the prodigal children heading home. We are the elder siblings waiting for the eager Father, who scans the horizon. In Christ Jesus we are reconciled to the Father and one another. In his death and resurrection we have passed over. We are a new creation. In this we rejoice.  Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
A Letter from parishioners...

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Along with all of you, we have mixed feelings about the impending retirement of our beloved Fr. Art. While we celebrate with him, his many years of service to our Church, we will miss his loving and abiding presence at parish events. Fr. Art has been a cherished member of our own extended family for over 25 years! He con-celebrated at our wedding, presided at the Sacraments of our five children, and shares table fellowship in our home. More importantly, we feel blessed to be part of such a warm and spiritual community here at St. Paul of the Cross Parish. This sense of community is something we do not take for granted.

2 weeks ago, Fr. Art announced to all of us that a fellow couple in our parish has offered to match donations over the next couple months, with the goal of retiring the current debt of the parish. This is a very generous offer and one that presents both a challenge as well as a wonderful opportunity! The opportunity is for all of us to join together, as a community, to accomplish this task.

We do realize that while we are united in our Catholic faith, we are diverse in our financial means. But therein lies the beauty of this opportunity. Whether we participate at $1, or $1,000, we can unite in this particular moment in time as a testament to our shared sense of community, here at St. Paul of the Cross.

With Fr. Art retiring, and our welcoming of a new pastor just a few months away, this is also a wonderful gift to both. However, more importantly, this can be a blessing to all of us who are the Catholic community of St. Paul of the Cross parish.

God Bless,
John and Mary Castronuovo
EVENING of SPIRIT and TRUTH
Featuring THE PASSOVER SEDER
THANK YOU!!
For joining us in celebrating the Passover Seder.

A very special thank you to Susan Fairchild, Fr. Art, Deacon Frank and Julie Bandy for leading us!

These evenings are designed to enrich our spirits with the witness of faith.

God bless you for sharing your time and talents with our parish community!

LIGHT HIS PATH LUMINARIES
At the end of the Holy Thursday Mass, March 24th, we are asked to follow Jesus and the Apostles in a procession to the altar of repose in the Ave Maria Banquet Room. Our path will be lit with luminary memorials. We will put your memorial message on a light that will line the driveway. To participate please fill out the form and drop it off, with $2 for each luminary at the Parish Office, Religious Shop, or put it in the collection basket on Sunday, Thank you and God bless you!

EASTER MEMORIALS & DECORATIONS
We will soon be decorating our church for the Easter Season. Your memorials will help us to do this. The offering for a memorial of a loved one is $10. Please print CLEARLY the name of the deceased in the space below. Place the offering and form in a plain envelope or you may use the envelope from your offertory packet, and put it in the collection basket or bring it to the Parish Office. The names of the deceased will appear in our Sunday bulletin.

Invitation to attend the Chrism Mass!
As part of Holy Week, on March 22 at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of St. Ignatius Loyola in Palm Beach Gardens, the Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito, Bishop of the Diocese of Palm Beach, will celebrate the traditional Catholic Chrism Mass with priests from the Catholic Diocese of Palm Beach. During the Chrism Mass, Bishop Barbarito will bless the three oils that will be used for sacramental purposes during the next year throughout all of the diocese’s 53 churches and missions. In addition to the blessing, the priests will renew their vows and those with significant ordination anniversaries will be recognized. For questions please contact: communications@diocesepb.org or 561-775-9529.
March 4, 2016
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus said to his disciples, “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest” (Luke 10:2). The Diocese of Palm Beach is blessed by the many young men who are prayerfully discerning a vocation to the priesthood. Their journey to become dedicated priests who will administer the sacraments to congregations is an important one, and one that requires your spiritual and financial support.

The annual collection for the Education of Seminarians and the Formation of Priests will take place on the weekend of March 12 and 13. This special collection supports those currently in formation at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in Boynton Beach, St. John Vianney College Seminary in Miami as well as those in discernment and other formation programs.

The formation of our seminarians includes the costs of tuition, housing, education, and pastoral training. Your spiritual and financial support is of great assistance to these young men in their discernment. By your generosity you walk the journey of faith with many future priests and ensure that the sacraments will continue to nourish the faithful for generations to come.

Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do to support priestly formation in the Diocese of Palm Beach. I greatly appreciate your generosity and continued prayers for our priests, seminarians and for those still discerning their call to the priesthood.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish,

I am Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
