SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's second reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:10). Read between the lines describing the radiant city, and we find that the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the twelve tribes of Israel and the Twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God. The first reading and the Gospel are linked to this idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and disturbance countered by the gift of peace. "[M]y peace I give to you," Jesus assures his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles and elders, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of new Gentile believers. The undue burden of circumcision will not be imposed on them.

To prepare for the Readings of May 7/8

First Reading -- Because Stephen professes his faith in the Son of Man, he is stoned to death (Acts 7:55-60). Psalm -- The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth (Psalm 97). Second Reading -- I, the Alpha and the Omega, am coming soon (Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20). Gospel -- Father, I pray that they may all be one, as you and I are one, that they may be brought to perfection (John 17:20-26).

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

In January, 1999, my husband of 47 years went to be with Our Lord. While planning his funeral with Fr. Art, I mentioned how upset my husband and I were that our two grandchildren, Caroline age 3 and Daniel age 1, were not baptized. My daughter and the two children could only be with me for one more day before returning to their home in New York. I asked Fr. Art if they could be baptized before they were leaving. My son asked if it could happen after the funeral Mass. Fr. Art, with his beautiful smile, said “That would be perfect. Everything I would need would be on the altar.” The children received the sacraments, with their aunt and uncle as Godparents. It was so special!
