PENTECOST SUNDAY
THE FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You’ll find no race of people left out; you’ll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the “birthday of the church.” In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today’s Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today’s second reading that “all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit.” When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don’t. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
Fr. Art has been a positive part of my family's life for more than 14 years. We especially value the role he plays in our daughters' lives as they grow up. Whether it's telling the twins corny jokes before they altar serve with him, coming over to play Wii Sports with us, attending school performances, or cooking special pasta sauce for them, he goes out of his way to share himself with us. I recall one time when my youngest was in kindergarten and the teacher told her to invite her father for Father's Day kite flying, she insisted on inviting 'Father' Art.... and he came to her school to fly a kite with her! She was so proud to have him there. We love him!!

Our very special memory (among others) is of Father Art officiating at the renewal of our wedding vows at our 50th anniversary last August & sharing our joy with all our family & friends. Father Art is very special to us & he will always be in our prayers & in our hearts. We wish him every blessing & much good health & happiness in his retirement.

With much love from Bill & Rosie Felice

Do YOU have a memory, story or picture of Fr. Art, during his time of service at St. Paul of the Cross, that we could share in the bulletin? What a fun way to honor and remember all the ways Father has led our parish for the past 27 years! Submit your stories or pictures by email, if possible, to paulcross@bellsouth.net or by mail to 10970 Jack Nicklaus Dr. North Palm Beach, FL 33408.
