PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind, and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. Mary, Queen of the Apostles and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

Merciful Father,
You desire the welfare of all your children.
Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all men.
This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has invited us to live the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy in special way during this Jubilee Year of Mercy. As we seek to assist our brothers and sisters in need, especially those in the Church in our nation, we live the Gospel message given to us by Jesus Christ. The weekend of June 11 & 12 our diocese will have a special collection for both the Black and Indian Missions and the Catholic Home Missions. These collections provide grants for projects that strengthens the faith of the people served by these mission ministries.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal helps your neighbors here and strengthen the Church at home. Support of this appeal provides catechesis, lay leadership training, funding for seminarian education, and other essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses.

For the last 131 years the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection has changed the landscape of evangelization and education efforts for Native Americans, Alaskan Americans and African Americans throughout the country. Grants awarded through this collection have helped to educate African American and Native American seminarians for priestly service to our Catholic communities, helped begin a new religious community for service to Native Americans in Arizona, and provided for solid Catholic education in Indian and Black Catholic mission schools. I thank you for your continued support of these missions which bring faith and hope to others and are instrumental in the building of Christian communities.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito,
Bishop of Palm Beach
