Jubilee Year of Mercy

thepopevideo.org

The Pope Video is a global initiative developed by the Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network (Apostleship of Prayer) to assist in the dissemination of the Holy Father’s monthly intentions related to the challenges that humanity faces. You can find the first video on our website at paulcross.org. It is approximately 1 1/2 minutes; in it the Pope shares his prayer request for interreligious dialogue.

That sincere dialogue among men and women of different faiths may produce the fruits of peace and justice. Pope Francis - January 2016

Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers:
Lynwood Livingston, Elena Johnson, and ...

Please NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

Jesus is the good news of God’s mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today’s Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love. There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

Today’s first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, “The Lord on his part has forgiven your sin” (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God’s mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today’s Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love. There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

To prepare for the Readings of June 18/19

First Reading — Zechariah foretells the Messiah (Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1).
Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).
Second Reading — There are no distinctions or divisions; we all belong to Christ (Galatians 3:26-29).
Gospel — Peter proclaims Jesus as the Christ; Jesus speaks of his great suffering to come (Luke 9:18-24).

PLEASE PRAY for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Obama and his advisors and,} Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Party to Celebrate Father Art’s Retirement
Fr. Art’s last Mass as Pastor of St. Paul of the Cross will be Saturday, June 25 at 5 PM. Celebration will follow in the Ave Maria Banquet Room.
RSVP, required to attend reception, by this Fri., June 17th!

Dearest Father Art, Thank you for all the wonderful memories you shared with us. When there was sadness you provided the comfort that we needed. With your sweet songs and gentle strumming on the guitar you brought us much happiness. The evening that we had the Mardi Gras dinner and dance was one that will be long remembered. It was a very special evening. God bless you as you start your new journey. Marlene

“Walking with Purpose”
Thursdays, June 16th, 23rd, 30th, July 7th and 14th at 7 PM
ALL women are invited! Catholic Bible study titled “Living in the Father’s Love.”
To register please call Kate or Joanne at the Parish Office, or email stpaulwalking@gmail.com

Fortnight for Freedom: Witnesses to Freedom
June 21 to July 4
The theme will focus on the lives of women and men of faith, from all over the world, who have borne witness to authentic freedom in Christ.

* A national tour of relics of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, both martyrs of the English Reformation, including a stop in the Province of Florida. The tour will be at the Church of the Little Flower Church in Coral Gables on June 18 & 19. Go to the Diocese of Palm Beach website at www.diocesepb.org for more information.

* 14 stories of “Witnesses to Freedom,” which highlight individual men and women from the past and present who have witnessed to the faith in extraordinary ways, including St. Edith Stein, Bl. Oscar Romero, the Coptic Christian martyrs, and the Little Sisters of the Poor.

* New video on ”The Right to Religious Freedom”, explaining Church teaching on religious freedom and highlighting current challenges to religious freedom, including the HHS mandate and global religious persecution.

For more information, visit www.Fortnight4Freedom.org

THANKS to the Knights for spreading over 100 bags of mulch in our Grotto last Saturday. God bless them and our Council #12322.

Dear Parishioners of St. Paul’s,
We would like to express a heartfelt thank you for your awesome prayers and financial support the past couple of weeks for our upcoming mission trip to Haiti, June 18 to June 25. We are so blessed to have the loving support of our church family here at St. Paul of the Cross. We look forward to writing you again upon our return.
May God bless you all! ‘The St. Paul’s Haiti Mission Team’
