PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today’s readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the “Lord’s power shall be known to his servants” (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the “peace and mercy” on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

To prepare for the Readings of July 9/10
First Reading — Heed the voice of the Lord. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).
Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.
Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).
Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

REST IN PEACE -
Charles Eisenberg,
May he rest in God’s peace and may his family be strengthened in faith.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

How easy it is in today’s society to ignore the cries of those in need and to become cynical about the state of the world around us. We might feel that our small acts of mercy cannot really change anything. But the indifference of the world will not change until we start showing the compassionate love and mercy of God toward everyone we meet and become more involved in our communities.

1. Dare to be compassionate! Read the local paper or watch the local news. Recognize where there is a need in your community, and pray for those who are in need and for those caring for them.
2. Volunteer at a local charity organization this month. If there is a need that you have come to recognize in your community, see if there are particular organizations that your parish is involved in, and join with others in supporting your community.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

When natural disasters occur around the world, the Catholic Church is quick to respond with food, shelter and other humanitarian supplies. Through the efforts of Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic Church, we are able to quickly assist those most in need.

Next weekend, on July 9 and 10, our diocese will have its annual special collection for CRS. Taken every July, the CRS Collection funds six Catholic agencies that work to serve Jesus in the guise of our suffering brothers and sisters around the world. These agencies provide a broad range of services that seek to rebuild, not just the homes, but the very lives of those affected by war, famine and natural disasters.

Your donations to the annual collection make it possible for CRS to assist those around the world 365 days a year. Your gift also makes it possible for CRS to continue working in those disaster-affected areas to provide essential long-term support while people rebuild their lives and homes.

Each time CRS is able to assist someone in need, you are there because of your prayerful and financial support. Thank you for the many ways you have served Christ around the world through your generous support of Catholic Relief Services.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
