TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

INVITED

The Good News is that we have all been invited—invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It’s a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment. Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God’s will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

“Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me” (Mt. 25:40). As men and women of faith we take the Gospel challenge of our Savior Jesus Christ to heart as we endeavor to keep the faith. Modern culture and our gadget dependent society have created an age of convenience, but an age that often forgets those with no voice because their existence is not convenient to us. Next weekend on September 10 and 11 the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a special collection to benefit the Respect Life Ministry and Migrant Ministry.

Tens of thousands of our brothers and sisters of all faiths, races, ethnicities, and cultures are still confronting adversity and persecution all around the world. Closer to home, our faith faces the challenges of a society that has an increasing disrespect for the dignity of human life and the human person. These voices often cry out with a silent scream because their existence is not convenient to us. Next weekend on September 10 and 11 the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a special collection to benefit the Respect Life Ministry and Migrant Ministry.

Your support of these this special collection enables the Diocese of Palm Beach to enact programs and services that promote and respect the lives of all of God’s sons and daughters.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
