No servant can serve two masters.

He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon.

TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR OTHERS

The Second Vatican Council has called us to envision the Church as the people of God. As a community of believers we are responsible for our brothers and sisters, their salvation, their journey of faith, their physical well-being. Many of the documents of Vatican II and volumes of work since the mid-1960s give us advice, guidelines, and encouragement to take care of one another: the poor, the elderly, the unborn, the broken, the infirm.

Because Vatican II is part of our recent history—indeed many of us were already born—this may strike us as a new and revolutionary idea. But today’s readings show us the agelessness of the issue of social justice. Eight hundred years before Christ was born, Amos warned the wealthy not to cheat the poor. In Paul’s first letter to Timothy, he encourages all prayers to be for all people; and finally, the Gospel urges the wise use of money.

To prepare for the Readings of September 24/25

First Reading — Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).
Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).
Second Reading — Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus (1 Timothy 6:11-16).
Dear friends,
As we leave our beloved St Paul of the Cross Catholic church to return to Virginia, we want to thank you, our dear parish friends for your loving generosity, care and kindness. From the time you looked after us after a car accident to all the blessings we have received through Caritas, Knights of Columbus, Alpha, the ministries in which we were involved and 8:00AM daily Mass, you dear brothers and sisters in Christ in this parish have really taken us under your wing. For this we will always be grateful. We love you all and you will be in our prayers. There is no parish like Saint Paul of the Cross. God Bless you.
Blessings,
Clint and Pat Johnson

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

In the middle of August while many were preparing for the end of summer and the beginning of the school year, residents in southeast Louisiana were dealing with severe flooding and many thousands lost their homes, possessions and the security of daily routine. The flood waters may have receded, but the damage done, both physically and emotionally, remains and our spiritual and financial support can be of great assistance.

On the weekend of September 24 and 25 the Catholic Church in the United States will sponsor a special collection to support the work of Catholic Charities USA and Catholic Charities in Louisiana who are helping flood victims.

Catholic Charities Agencies are providing humanitarian aid and pastoral care to the many who have lost their homes, jobs and peace of mind. Catholic Charities needs your help to continue the fine work of disaster relief they carry out in your name around the country.

You may donate to CCUSA through your parish or make online donations through our diocesan website at www.catholiccharitiesdb.org/floods or at catholiccharitiesusa.org. You may also donate by calling CCUSA’s toll free number at 1-800-919-9338. Further details on the donation options are available on our websites.

If you are not able to assist financially, please continue to keep the flood victims in your daily prayers, Mass intentions and devotions. Your prayers provide a powerful means of support for those in need.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito, Bishop of Palm Beach

PLEASE PRAY

for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Obama and his advisors and, for the men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things.

Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
