As children we sang the lively song This Little Light of Mine. The words, of course, are based on today’s Gospel, in which we are called as disciples to be salt and light for the world. Children are uninhibited about sharing their faith. It’s only when we grow older that we prefer to hide our light under a bushel basket because our culture tends not to emphasize discipleship. The message in this week’s readings is clear: in order to give glory to God through our discipleship, we must show the light of Christ in our words and deeds. Not an easy thing for inhibited adults. Often we may think of salt and light in terms of what we do for others, but it can be just as important not to do something, such as getting angry with the stranger on the road, or telling an offensive joke.

The 12 albums released during his 21 years as a Benedictine monk at Weston Priory included some of the Catholic Church’s most loved compositions including Hosea, All I Ask of You, Wherever You Go, Peace, Come To Me, The Lord Jesus and many more. Gregory’s compositions have continued since his days at Weston. The multiple music collections and prayer books he has released to support his ongoing ministry have enjoyed continued widespread acceptance at Liturgies throughout the world. Simply put, the music of Gregory Norbet has “provided the soundtrack to the spiritual journey of millions of Catholic Christians for almost 50 years.”

Merciful Father,
You desire the welfare of all your children.
Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things.
Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
