Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are a diocesan family of many blessings which include a population rich in cultural diversity with a large number of immigrant families. Many of us are from families who came to our great nation to find a new homeland and a hopeful beginning. Sadly, due to many years of the lack of adequate legal immigration reform, the current context in which our nation finds itself puts many of our immigrants in a situation of great concern, anxiety and fear. Hopefully, many of the fears are unfounded, but those who carry them need to be understood and supported in a manner that is in keeping with our faith through appropriate outreach.

There are many resources on our Diocesan website, www.diocesepb.org, to assist us in this regard. Among them, on the home page, are two: the most recent pastoral reflection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Living as a People of God in Unsettled Times, and a reflection I wrote for the Florida Catholic, To Welcome, to Protect, to Promote, to Integrate and to Pray. It is prayer, awareness and the proper action in accord with the law which are at the heart of our response. At this unsettled time of concern, may our faith bring us together as one family in our Church and in this great nation.

With every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

RITES OF

The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ’s Passion and approaching Crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment.

Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

JESUS’ MINISTRY SUMMARIZED

The story of the raising of Lazarus from the dead is the single longest story (apart from the Passion) in the Gospel of John. In it we find a summary of most of Jesus’ ministry. We see his very human nature as he is moved by Martha and Mary’s sorrows and as he himself weeps at the tomb of Lazarus. He is the wisdom of God’s Word made flesh as he explains to his followers that the death of Lazarus will serve as a sign of the glory of God. He crowns the miracles he works in John’s Gospel (which began with the most “human” miracle of making new wine at Cana’s wedding) by raising Lazarus from the dead—a “preview,” if you will, of his own death and resurrection to come. This portrait of Jesus reminds us, as we near the end of our Lenten journey, that he is with us, knows us, understands us in every moment of our lives. He knows the joy of our human feasting, he knows the sorrow of our weeping. As we prepare to walk with him through the days of Holy Week, we are filled with faith that—through Christ—God’s glory will be with us in every moment of our lives and—with Christ—in our life everlasting. Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
