RITES OF

The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ’s Passion and approaching Crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment.

Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD
SEEING CHRIST CLEARLY

We start today looking through the portals of Jerusalem, seeing crowds of people, cheering and waving palm branches in the air. The whole atmosphere is one of joy, triumph, and celebration. We can get distracted or enthralled by the scene, and not see clearly the features of Jesus as he enters. But our readings from Isaiah and Paul’s letter to the Philippians clarify his features for us. He is the Suffering Servant, meek and mute before his captors and persecutors; he is the very image of the unseen God, yet will not clutch at equality with God before he endures his final confrontation in humility. Isaiah and Paul help us “behold the Lamb of God” before we hear the story of his final and greatest confrontation. It is important that we see Christ clearly before we hear the account of his passion, for we—his Body through baptism, the church—now bear his face. We must, with him, enter into this time of trial so we can, also with him, enter into his final triumph. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

In his Lenten message, Pope Francis challenges us to meditate on the parable of the rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31). The title of his message is especially inviting: The Word is a gift. Other persons are a gift. Our Holy Father writes, “Lazarus teaches us that other persons are a gift. A right relationship with people consists in grateful recognizing their value. . . The parable first invites us to open the doors of our heart to others because each person is a gift, whether it be our neighbor or an anonymous pauper.”

Next week when we gather as one family of faith on April 14th, we will participate in the special Good Friday Collection. In doing so, we answer Pope Francis’ call to support Christians in the Holy Land who have faced so much adversity, persecution and struggle and are often overlooked and forgotten, like Lazarus in the parable.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps preserve and rebuild the shrines and churches of the Holy Land. Additionally in these times of wars, instability and crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

During this holy season of Lent, may God fill you with every joy, strength and gift of grace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito   Bishop of PB

THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS
( RCIA) CLASSES Meet on Sunday at 9:15 AM in the Coffee House EASTER VIGIL Sat. April 15th at 8 PM
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers:

Bill Clark, Sophia Kappan, and...

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

Please pray for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Trump and his advisors and, merciful Father, you desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

Merciful Father, you desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
