TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
THE HEAVENLY BANQUET
The mountain of the Lord described in today’s first reading is a place where there is no more hunger, no more weeping, and no more division of any kind. We need to pause and ponder these images every now and then, especially given the fact that we live in such a fractured world. The responsorial psalm continues to paint a picture of a place where only goodness and kindness flourish. These readings describe the heavenly banquet, to which God calls each of us through baptism and continues to call us throughout our lives. Let us “RSVP” to God’s invitation and live our lives consistent with gospel values so that one day we will be welcomed to the table of the kingdom.

Dear Fr. Thomas,

Thank you for your generous donation of $3,872.00. On behalf of my entire parish I deeply thank you for this support towards our Catechist Director. St. Mary relies solely on donors, because all of our families here at our parish live below poverty level and are struggling migrant farm workers. Without your support it would not be possible to fund this.

God bless you and all of the parishioners at St. Paul of the Cross Catholic Church. This is a tremendous gift to our St. Mary Religious Education Program. Again, thank you and God bless you from all of us here in Pahokee, a small migrant agricultural community.

Respectfully yours in Christ,
Rev. Juan Raul Cardenas, Pastor

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord.
