Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today’s Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps? The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

November 3, 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

On November 19, 2017, the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Catholic Church around the world will observe the inaugural World Day of the Poor. In beginning this observance, our Holy Father writes that: “The Body of Christ, broken in the sacred liturgy, can be seen, through charity and sharing, in the faces and persons of the most vulnerable of our brothers and sisters.”

In announcing the inaugural World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis selected a theme “Let us love, not with words but with deeds.” The title of the message is taken from John’s first letter, in which the apostle tells the Christian community of his time: “Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth.”

On the weekend of November 11 & 12 the Diocese of Palm Beach has the annual collection for the Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). For more than 45 years, the CCHD has addressed the problem of poverty by addressing its root causes. CCHD grants fund projects that aim to improve lifestyles and promote financial stability through fair housing, education, accessible health care and child care, and vocational training.

Your support of this collection makes a difference for people living in poverty across the United States. Through CCHD’s anti-poverty programs, we are able to reach those living on the margins, encountering Christ on the periphery. Thank you for joining us to work on the margins.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito Bishop of Palm Beach
We honor our parishioners who served in Ministry, and passed away during the past year. God bless them for their dedicated spirit of Stewardship to our Parish over the years. May each of them rest in God’s Peace!
