A New Column by Fr. Tom

Looking Through Stained Glass

Over the last 18 months, I have had the distinct pleasure to be a part of our parish, St. Paul of the Cross. While I have been asked by a number of people to start a column, I have been reticent to do so, as I thought it somewhat immodest. After all, I am a pilgrim, just like you, on this journey toward Heaven. I was finally convinced when a friend told me that pilgrims need to encourage and exhort one another. In Paul’s First Letter to the Thessalonians, he says, “Therefore, encourage one another and build one another up, as indeed you do.” [1 TH 5:11] To begin my part in encouraging you, I’d like to share with you some of the things that encourage me about our faith and our faith journey, with this excerpt from comments I made at the Mass of Installation this past October:

As many of you know, I think our Catholic faith is beautiful. From the flowing rhythms of the liturgy to the eloquence of theology, from the uplifting praise of our music to the heartfelt words of our prayers, from the luminous images of our stained glass to the encouragement that comes from the statues and pictures of our saints, from the mysteries of the Trinity and the Eucharist to the history of the development of our Church, this faith is beautiful. But, today, there are two elements of our faith that evoke beauty for me more than all the others. Those two elements are the Church and hope.

One of the most beautiful parts of our faith is hope. In fact, we are a people of hope. We are a people of hope because that’s what Christ taught us to be. Christ gave us hope by His Passion, Death and Resurrection. We have hope in Christ because he gave us New Life in Him. So, many of the actions that we perform as a part of our faith are actions filled with hope. We have hope at the Baptism of a new baby – her new life cries out of the care of our Lord for all of us, even the littlest ones. We have hope at the wedding of a young couple. Their new life together reminds us of God’s great gift of love. We even have hope at funerals. We have hope of a new life in Heaven for our loved one. I pray that this moment is a moment of hope for us all too.

Not that you have hope in me, but that together, we have hope that the Holy Spirit will continue to lead our parish closer to the Lord and will inspire us to invite other people to join us as disciples of Christ. Today, I believe that the beauty of our faith is also found in the Church, and what I mean by the Church is the Body of Christ, the people. I know that I have mentioned this before, but I am so grateful for the welcome that I received when I first entered this parish a little over a year ago. […] I always thank God for all of you who have been so supportive of my ministry here. Over and over again, I am awestruck by the beauty of the faith, hope and love of this Church, the people of St. Paul of the Cross Parish. May God be with us to guide us and bless us all.
FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TIRELESS DISCIPLESHIP

The stories we’ve been hearing these weeks come from the very first chapter of Mark, and they show us the public ministry of Jesus in its infancy. Today’s account shows some of the strain or adjustment of his new life of preaching the reign of God, healing the sick, and casting out demons. Notice that after sunset, when darkness ended the workday, people brought the sick and possessed to Jesus. The following day he rose before dawn to get away by himself to pray, but to no avail. Simon Peter and the others don’t just look for him, they pursue him, filled with the fervor that his ministry has incited. With the self-sacrificing example he gave until the end of his earthly life, he tells his followers that this is his whole purpose. Through Mark, he is also telling the early church, and he is telling us, that this is our purpose, our vocation: to be tireless in our pursuit of proclaiming the Good News, and in bringing the healing, reconciling touch of Christ to the world.

To prepare for the Readings of Feb. 10/11

First Reading — The leper will dwell apart, making an abode outside the camp (Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46).
Psalm — I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation (Psalm 32).
Second Reading — Do everything for the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31 — 11:1).
Gospel — The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean (Mark 1:40-45).
REST IN PEACE

Jeanne Marie Knaus,
May she rest in God’s peace and may her family be strengthened in faith.

Do You Think God is Calling You to the Priesthood?

If you are a junior in high school or older, come join other men who are looking to answer that question. On March 9-11, 2018 St. John Vianney Seminary in Miami is hosting a weekend to experience what life is like at the seminary and to answer any questions you may have. Transportation will be provided. Please ask for a registration form. If you need more information about the weekend, contact the Office of Vocations: 561-775-9552 or vocations@diocesepb.org

Caritas VIII

March 9, 10 and 11, 2018
Applications are available for this inspiring Parish Retreat!

The purpose of the St. Paul of the Cross annual Caritas weekend is to bring candidates closer to Christ through a joyful experiential retreat experience within the framework of Roman Catholic theology and liturgy. Caritas is made possible through the Holy Spirit and is enhanced through the prayer and active involvement of our parish community.

Treat yourself to a joy-filled weekend with fellow parishioners or give the gift of a retreat to someone you love!

We are most grateful to those who responded last week to the 2018 Diocesan Services Appeal. This is a wonderful example of your stewardship and your willingness to reach out to others. If you have not had the opportunity to respond as yet, please make an effort to do so. Thank you again for sharing in a way that allows Bishop Barbarito and our Diocese to provide the leadership, vision, and assistance our people need.

Please prayfully consider your ability to support the 2018 Diocesan Services Appeal. PLEASE HELP US MAKE OUR GOAL!!!

Say “NO” to corruption
That those who have material, political or spiritual power may resist the lure of corruption.

Scripture – Ephesians 4:20-24 That is not how you learned Christ...as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind and put on the new self, created in God’s way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.
This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
