Saint Paul of the Cross

A Catholic Community That Grows Disciples!
Easter Prayer
Glory and praise to You, Risen Savior,
for You bring light to our darkness, joy to our sorrow,
and the fullness of love to our reluctant hearts.
Once and for all You have conquered sin and evil.
In the glory of Your Resurrection we have been set free from all that keeps us from following You.
On this Easter Day, fill our hearts with Your Light and Grace that we might joyfully echo the words of Your Holy Angels:
He is not here in the tomb:
He is risen!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen!!

A Column by Fr. Tom

April Fools? No, it really is Easter! Alleluia!!

On the weekend that preceded Ash Wednesday, I wrote a column, entitled “Love and Lent,” about how appropriate it was that Lent began on Valentine’s Day. At the Masses on Ash Wednesday, I wished everyone a “Lovely Lent.” At the very end of the February 11th column, I left you with the teaser, “Stay tuned to this column at Easter when we discuss the proper connection between April First and Easter Sunday.”

Well, it’s Easter Sunday and it’s April First, so what’s the big deal? In the previous column, I commented that “Lent is the season where we discover how we can love even more than we do today. Lent is the season where we prepare for the Paschal Mystery – the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus – the Greatest Act of Love this world has ever known!” Today we celebrate the completion of that act of love, the Resurrection! This is not an April Fool’s joke; this is what we truly believe because it is what truly happened. Today, we celebrate our belief that Jesus not only died for our sins, but also rose again to conquer death. Some might call us fools for believing in such a thing. In fact, people have been calling Christians fools since the first witnesses of the Resurrection. St. Paul, in his early writings explained our faith this way, “…we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ [is] the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom…” [1 Cor 1:23-25]

I believe what Jesus says in John’s Gospel, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” [John 3:16-17]

I believe that God loves us so much that He was willing to die to save us. I believe that Jesus conquered sin and death through His Passion and Resurrection.

So, maybe I’m a fool for love – God’s love – and maybe I’m a fool for believing in that love, but I’d rather be a “Fool for Christ” than a man who knew too much and believed too little. To me, that would really be foolishness. HAPPY EASTER!!! ALLELUIA!!!

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST

On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today’s scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing “Alleluia!”

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John’s Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives?

Magnificat – A Ministry to Catholic Women
The Christ Our Light Chapter of Magnificat invites all women of the diocese to join us for our next breakfast Sat., April 7 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Hilton P.B. Airport 150 Australian Ave. WPB

Please join us as we share a meal, enjoy fellowship, give praise and encourage one another in our faith journey. Judy Warren is a cradle Catholic who will share how her relationship with Christ has grown and been sustained over the years. Judy has taught in Palm Beach County for 27 years and now works as a school counselor. She worships at St. Rita in Wellington where she has served in religious education and as a lector and Eucharistic minister for many years. It been said that God draws straight with crooked lines. From Judy’s challenges with alcohol addiction to her life-changing experience of Cursillo, God has used the low points, the high points, and everything in between to draw Judy closer to Himself. You will be inspired by her story of how God is working in her life.

Registration Deadline: March 30 Email: csheldon@bellsouth.net Please send check payable to "Magnificat" to Cindy Sheldon 3038 30th Court, Jupiter, FL 33477 $25.00 if payment is postmarked by deadline or $30.00 at the door

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord.
