FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED

Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it’s no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world’s crops and livestock. This week’s scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John’s letter we hear that we have become God’s beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who “lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God’s beloved flock?

To prepare for the Readings of April 28/29

First Reading — The church was being built up, and grew in numbers (Acts 9:26-31).
Psalm — I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people (Psalm 22).
Second Reading — Let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth (1 John 3:18-24).
Gospel — Remain in me, as I remain in you. I am the vine, you are the branches (John 15:1-8).

A Column by Fr. Tom

Our Community, or “Common-unity”, begins with a Common Language

In the last couple of columns, we discussed being one Parish Family and two signs of our unity – the Parish Crest or logo and the Parish Vision Statement. These signs begin to give us a commonality on which to build. Like any family, we also have a common language. Most of our common language comes from the larger family of the Universal Church of which we are a part. For example, if I talk about the Gospel, the Eucharist or the Creed, the people of our parish know of what I am speaking. To continue this adoption of speaking a common language, we as a parish have some terms that we generally know. For example, if I mention “Caritas,” many of the people of the parish would know that I am most likely talking about the parish retreat.

As a group of our parishioners looked at our parish, we discovered one area where we had some confusion in our language. It was in the naming of different rooms and buildings on our campus. Everybody had their own name for different places. For example, the large building was called “the 3-story building” by some, “the administration building” by others, and “the parish center” or “the classroom building” by still others. Taking a survey of many people in the parish, we have established common names for the various rooms and buildings on campus.

The names that were selected come from our tradition as a Catholic parish and as a parish that was established by the Passionists. Since the parish is named after the founder of the Passionists [St. Paul of the Cross], the large office/classroom building was given the name of another great Passionist saint and so became the St. Gabriel Building. As we already had the Ave Maria Banquet Hall, we named the smaller hall, St. Joseph Hall, which had been known by some as the Parish Hall. The smallest of the conference rooms, formerly known as the KaffeeHaus, was renamed the All Saints Room, in honor both of the saints of our Catholic tradition and the meetings of “saints-in-training” that happen there.

Once the names of the various rooms and buildings were established, we set about putting the appropriate signage in place, so that it will be easier to identify each space, both for members of the parish and for our guests. Many people have noticed the beautiful new signs around our parish campus and have had positive comments. In addition, the new signs have already helped many people find their way to a meeting or event. I want to thank Deacon Frank Bandy and his company, Aresys Inc., for assisting us with this effort by fabricating these fantastic signs. The project is nearly complete (a large, lighted directional sign is set to be installed soon), but we are well on our way to unifying the parish grounds and place names. This is one more step in accentuating our common language, our “common-unity”, our community, our one Parish Family of St. Paul of the Cross.
Columbette meetings are on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. The next meeting is, May 16th at 7 PM in the All Saints Room. Refreshments begin at 6:30 PM.

If you are interested and would like to become a Columbette, please contact Carol at 561-818-0342 or Wanda at 718-877-9100.

Knights of Columbus general meetings are on the 2nd Wednesday of the month; the next meeting is Wed., May 9th (officers meet on the 1st Wed.; the next meeting is Wed., May 2nd) at 7 PM in the All Saints Room.

Please consider joining the Knights of Columbus at St Paul of the Cross Parish. Contact Jonathan Knaus @ 561-603-8303 or email kofc12322@gmail.com

Did you know?

In today’s world, many Catholic men are looking to fulfill their desire to spend meaningful time with their family, to serve their community and their Church, and to grow in their faith. Joining the Knights of Columbus provides these men and their families with volunteer opportunities and activities that accomplish these goals. If you are such a man who is dedicated to making a difference, then membership in the Knights of Columbus is for you.

Who are the Knights?

Knights are Catholic men, 18 years of age and older, who are committed to making their community a better place, while supporting their Church.

Knights share camaraderie with men who hold values similar to yours. Knights are involved with your community; they support your local Catholic Church and its causes, while deepening their faith; and they believe in protecting and enhancing their family life.

Join an incredible organization that is dedicated to serving our parish and community.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Each year on the Fourth Sunday of Easter, Knights of Columbus throughout the world participate on the annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations. This day is an opportunity for all Knights and others to raise awareness of the need for men and women to say yes to their vocation.

The St. Paul of the Cross Council supports vocations by participation in the Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP). It is the primary program through which councils provide financial and moral support to men and women preparing for the priesthood or religious life. Funding for this program is derived by the council’s dinners, breakfasts and other parish-based activities.

This Fraternal Year St. Paul of the Cross Council has provided support to the following seminarians.

- Deacon Frank D’Amato
- Fourth Year Theology
- Pope St. John XXXIII
- National Seminary

- Robinson Aza
- Third Year Theology
- St. Vincent de Paul Seminary

Please join us in prayer for vocations.

Alain Waterman
- Second Year Theology
- St. Vincent de Paul Seminary

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

PLEASE PRAY for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Trump and his advisors and for,
