Today we celebrate Christ’s ascension into heaven and his commissioning of the disciples to carry on his mission in the world. First we hear Luke’s description of those events in the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles. Next we hear words of encouragement and guidance from the Letter to the Ephesians. Finally we hear Mark’s account of the Ascension, foretelling the mighty words and acts the Christian community would do in Jesus’ name.

Together these scriptures give us a vision of the mission of the church of Jesus Christ—a mission statement of sorts. Like mission statements in our parishes and corporations, this mission statement can help us set priorities and focus our activities. It can guide and support us as we strive to continue Christ’s messianic mission on earth.

To prepare for the Readings of May 19/20

Pentecost Sunday

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

A Column by
Fr. Tom

The Prayer of a Mother
Last week, we explored the beginnings of our prayer. I mentioned in that column that most of us learned how to pray from our parents. Indeed, many of us first learned to pray from our mothers. Mothers teach us to pray by instructing us in prayer, but also by being examples of prayer.

Whenever I think of mothers and prayer, besides reflecting on my own experience, I am also reminded of two great praying mothers of our tradition – our Blessed Mother Mary and St. Monica.

How do I know that Mary was a great pray-er? The Bible tells us so. For example, she conversed with the angel Gabriel during the Annunciation. [Luke 1:26-38] We are also told that during the various events of Jesus’ birth and infancy, Mary “pondered [all these events] in her heart.” [Luke 2:19, 51] Finally, in the book of Acts, Mary is said to have been present and praying with the other disciples in the time between Jesus’ Ascension and Pentecost: “All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus.” [Acts 1:14]

St. Monica, another great praying mother, is famous for her perseverance in prayer. Monica is the mother of St. Augustine, and she prayed for more than 30 years for the conversion of her son. It is thanks in no small part to the prayers of Monica that Augustine went from a terrific sinner to one of the greatest saints of our faith. Like St. Monica, how many tearful prayers have been spoken by mothers over the fate and faith of their children?

Today, we celebrate our mothers in a special way. Our mothers have spent so much time in prayer with us and for us, perhaps we can spend a few minutes in prayer for them today. While the flowers, the candies, and the brunches may be appreciated, I would venture to guess that many mothers would rather have our prayers. I have quoted below one such prayer to help us pray for our mothers today and every day:

I thank you, Creator of us all, for my mother. I thank you that she gave me life and nurtured me all those years. She gave me my faith, helping me to know you and to know Jesus and his ways. She taught me how to love and how to sacrifice for others. She taught me that it was okay to cry and that I should always tell the truth.

Bless her with the graces she needs and which you want to give her today. Help her to feel precious in your eyes today and to know that I love her. Give her strength and courage, compassion and peace. Most of all, bless her this day with your love. Amen.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
