“Where All God’s Children are Honored”
Pentecost! What a difference that one day, that single event, made in the life of the Church!

Without the Spirit, the apostles would have remained confused and fearful.

With the Spirit, they grew in understanding of Jesus’ message and became bold sharers of the Good News.

The Holy Spirit’s power can frighten us or embolden us—or both! Much depends on our attitude and receptiveness to God’s will. We pray that you will invite the Spirit to guide you and enliven your faith—at Pentecost and beyond!

WELCOME!

PENTECOST SUNDAY
ALL ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God’s promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul’s letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John’s Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

To prepare for the Readings of May 26/27

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

First Reading — Ask now of the days of old: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? (Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40).

Psalm — Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — You received a Spirit of adoption through whom we cry, “Abba, Father!” (Romans 8:14-17).

Gospel — I am with you always, until the end of the age (Matthew 28:16-20).

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the Earth

The ACTS of Prayer

What is prayer? It is a conversation with God. Sometimes we can rely on the formal prayers of our tradition to help us with this conversation, but sometimes we want to express something to the Lord and none of the formal prayers seem to fit the bill. What do we do then?

If prayer is a conversation with God, then we should feel comfortable enough to speak to God the way we might speak to a close friend. After all, there is no one who is closer to us or knows more about us than God. As St. Augustine said, “You, however, are more intimate to me, than my most intimate thought.” [Confessions 3.6.11] There is nothing that we can tell God that He doesn’t already know. However, we express ourselves in prayer to acknowledge to ourselves what is in our hearts.

Some people have no trouble expressing themselves to God as if speaking to a close friend, but others feel like they’re never really sure what to say during prayer. For this, we can turn to our tradition again. The Church has given us a mnemonic to help us structure our prayer. For those who need a little help, we can use the acronym ACTS to plan our prayer. ACTS stands for Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving and Supplication.

Adoration is the acknowledgement of who God is. God is the Creator and we are His creation. Adoration helps to remind us of how much greater God is than we are. Jesus Himself began with Adoration in the prayer He gave us, the Our Father. “Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name…”

In the face of the awesomeness of God, we might then express our own humility. It is during this moment of prayer that we would enter into Contrition. Again we can turn to the Our Father for an example: “Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.” We might express where we have fallen short of the love of God and love of neighbor that Jesus commanded for us.

The next movement of our prayer would then be Thanksgiving. We give thanks for all that God has done for us this day and in our lives. God loves us so much and is intimately connected to us. He wants us to have joy in our lives. The moment of Thanksgiving allows us the opportunity to acknowledge all that God means to us personally.

Finally, we may have certain requests of the Almighty God. This is the time for Supplication. This is the kind of prayer with which we are most familiar. “Give us this day our daily bread.” It is here that we ask God for the many things that we need, the requests that only He can answer.

In addition to ACTS, there are other prayer methods that help give structure to our prayer. Some have used the “Prayer Process” of Matthew Kelly with great results. This process has been mentioned in several of his books and can be found on his website: https://dynamiccatholic.com/learning/the-prayer-process

During this week, try adding impromptu prayer into your routine by one of these methods or by just talking to God. Next week, we’ll begin to focus on the other half of the conversation – listening.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
