“Where All God’s Children are Honored”
THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today’s solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

MEMORIAL DAY PRAYER

Lord, thank you for the men and women who protect us and preserve Your gifts of life, country, and freedom at home and abroad, even at the sacrifice of their own lives. Keep in Your Mercy all those who have laid down their lives so that we can continue to enjoy the rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Let Your perpetual light shine upon them, and grant them eternal rest. Please send out your angels to protect all who serve our country. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Speak, Lord, Your Servant is Listening

What is prayer? It is a conversation with God. It is a conversation, not a monologue. That means that we must listen, as well as talk to God. Last week, we discussed talking to God, so this week, we will begin our study of listening to God, which will take us through the next few weeks.

Early in Scripture, we find God actually talking to various people. For example, “God said to Noah: I see that the end of all mortals has come…. Make yourself an ark of gopherwood…” [GN 6:13-14 emphasis added]. God also spoke to Abraham, Moses and many others. Most people don’t hear God speak to them in such a clear way today, so we must find other ways to “listen to God.”

This week, we will discuss one of the clearest ways that God speaks to us today – through those same Scriptures. The question then comes to us, “Where do I start?” It is true that the Bible is big book, so I’d like to give you a few hints on how to get started reading Scripture.

Some people have chosen to let the Bible fall open to a page and read whatever is on that page. That may work for some, but it also can pose some problems, especially since you will be reading those passages out of context, which can be confusing.

Might I suggest a couple of other methods for choosing readings? First, I would suggest that you read one book of the Bible from start to finish. If you plan to choose this method, start by reading one of the Gospels, especially Matthew or Luke. The reason I suggest these two books is that they are mostly narrative in nature, which makes them easier to read and understand, and they cover the entire life of Jesus from His Birth to His Ascension. Just read one or two chapters a day. I promise you will learn something about Jesus with every chapter.

Another way to choose Scripture is to read from the daily or Sunday readings of the Church. Every day the Church has selected at least one reading from the Old or New Testament, one Psalm, and one selection from a Gospel. The citations for these readings are published in our bulletin every week. They can also be found on several websites or apps, such as the US Bishops’ website, usccb.org/bible/readings/. One of the advantages of these websites and apps is that the full text of the reading is included, in case you have trouble finding the reading in your Bible.

Some may choose to use other guides to daily or Sunday Scripture readings. Often these guides include either the text of the readings or a reflection on them. Some of the guides that you can use include “One Bread, One Body,” which lists the daily readings and has a reflection on them, or the Magnificat, which has the text of the readings and often includes a reflection for the day, as well. You can find some copies of “One Bread, One Body” on the back shelves of the Church, and the Magnificat is available in our Religious Shop.

[You can also find a new Bible there if you don’t have one.] So, this week, take your Bible off the bookshelf, and read the words the God wants you to hear. Next week, we’ll discuss ways to reflect further on the Scriptures you’re reading.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS:
Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call. We pray!
Dear Fr. Tom & Parishioners of St. Paul of the Cross,

It is a pleasure to write all of you today with some exciting news! And Fr. Tom, it was a blessing to have you join us last month for the dedication of the Notre Dame du Fatima Catholic Grade School in Jeandenis, Haiti where we have been working for the past 10 years. You, our wonderful and giving parishioners here at St. Paul of the Cross, have contributed tremendously to our work in Haiti and in particular to the building of the Notre Dame du Fatima Grade School. We are so very thankful for your prayers, your time, your talents and your generous financial support!!

I have attached several pictures of the ‘dedication’. It was truly a spectacular event! Bishop Yves Marie Pean, from the Diocese of Gonaives, was present to bless the school along with the Pastor, Fr. Jean Salomon Vincent, local priests & parishioners, students & teachers, our Pastor Fr. Tom, several of St. Paul’s parishioners and a team of us from Hands Together.

The school has the capacity for 400 - 450 children, grades PK through 6th grade. ALL work on the school was carried out by the Haitian people; from the architects, to the engineers, electricians, plumbers, and laborers. The school, including the computer lab, is completely powered by solar energy, installed by the Haitian Solar Energy firm, DigitalKap. Many of the computers came from our very own ‘Computer Ministry’ here at St. Paul’s as we worked very closely with Jim Clark who supplied the lab with refurbished laptops. The precious statue of Our Lady of Fatima that adorns the school courtyard was donated by a parishioner of St. Paul’s. Deacon Bill Rich & Jim Howell made many trips to Haiti over the past couple of years to oversee the building of the school. Their hands-on approach to working directly with the Haitian contractors insured the building of a school second to none! What a blessing St. Paul of the Cross has been to the Haitian people!!

The children moved from the old school to the new school this past month. Excitement & joy was seen in every child’s face as they entered classrooms that now have lights, fans, ventilation and ample space – so vital for learning yet only a dream at the old school! The 5th and 6th grade students have already started taking computer classes – they cannot get enough and don’t want this class to end. The computer lab will also be made available for the local adult community to take classes.

We are so very thankful to God for this amazing opportunity to work, hand in hand, with the beautiful and gracious Haitian people. I can speak for our team when I say that the joy we see in these special people is something we carry with us every day! We are also extremely grateful to all of our supporters who have made this dream come true for the families of the Notre Dame du Rosaire Parish and the village of Jeandenis.

I would like to extend a most heartfelt THANKS to all of you for your support of our work. Our philosophy, ‘Men Anpil, Chay Pa Lou’, (Many Hands Make the Load Light) was born of the belief that TOGETHER we can make a difference!

Thanks again Fr. Tom for joining us for the dedication of the school and for your support of our work through your loving and generous parish! You have all been such a blessing to us and our work!

God bless you!!

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and do so Will you in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord.
