Today we encounter readings that draw us into the mystery of suffering and death. In the past few years we have witnessed the devastation of life and property through earthquakes and hurricanes. So many lifted their lament to God, simply asking, “Why?” This is an honest expression of anger toward a God who we believe is the giver of life. When we lose a loved one, we can wonder why the presence of Christ is not enough to make that person rise, even from death, as did the little girl in today’s Gospel passage. Again we raise our voices and ask, “Why?” At moments such as these, let us make the prayer of the psalmist our own: “Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper.” Let us pray that our mourning will one day be turned into dancing.

Readings for the Week

Monday: Am 2:6-10, 13-16; Ps 50:16b-c; Mt 8:18-22
Tuesday: Eph 2:19-22; Ps 117:1bc, 2; Jn 10:24-29
Wednesday: Am 5:14-15, 21-24; Ps 50:7-13, 16b-c; Mt 8:28-34 or, for Independence Day, any readings from the Mass “For the Country or a City,” nos. 882-886, or “For Peace and Justice,” nos. 887-891
Thursday: Am 7:10-17; Ps 19:8-11; Mt 9:1-8
Friday: Am 8:4-6, 9-12; Ps 119:2, 10, 20, 30, 40, 131; Mt 9:9-13
Saturday: Am 9:11-15; Ps 85:9ab, 10-14; Mt 9:14-17

To prepare for the Readings of July 7/8

First Reading — They shall know that a prophet has been among them (Ezekiel 2:2-5).
Psalm — Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy (Psalm 123).
Second Reading — I am content with weaknesses and hardships for the sake of Christ (2 Corinthians 12:7-10).
Gospel — The people said: “Where did this man get all this? Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?” (Mark 6:1-6).

REST IN PEACE -
Alessio Raffaele, Mary D. Sweeney, and Edward Croke
May they rest in God’s peace and may their family be strengthened in faith.

What if God were Here Right Now? He Is!

Last week, I encouraged you to spend some QUIET time with the Lord. I hope that you were able to find some time every day to re-connect with God. I realize that this isn’t always easy. In fact, some may say, “I’ve tried this and all I hear from God is silence.” OK, well, this week, let’s try a more guided meditation. For this, we turn again to St. Ignatius. Ignatius encourages us to examine our conscience (or really, consciousness) to see where God has been active in our daily life.

The examen takes place in 5 steps:

Become aware of God’s presence. God is always present, we just need to recognize Him. However, here we are speaking of a twofold awareness. First, we should try to be aware of God’s presence with us during this moment of prayer. In other words, enter into the silence, as we spoke about last week. Next, we should become aware that God was present with us throughout the day. This leads to our next step.

Review the day with gratitude. St. Paul says, “In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.” [1 Thess 5:18] As we are becoming aware of God’s presence with us through the events of our day, we give thanks to God. First of all, we give thanks that He is living up to the promise He made before He ascended into Heaven: “And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” [Matt 28:20] Also, we give thanks to God for the events of our lives. Although it is much easier for us to give thanks to God for all the positive moments; we should also give thanks for the challenges that we had during the day. For example, “Thank you, Lord, for the traffic jam on 95, it gave me a few more minutes to pray the rosary (or call that friend I’ve been meaning to call for weeks).”

Pay attention to your emotions. God speaks to us most clearly through our thoughts and feelings. As you review the events of your day, how did you see God working through these events and what is God trying to tell you? Is He trying to tell you to be a bit more patient? Did He bring you some consolation from a chance meeting with a new client or an old friend? Did you find a small moment of peace during your morning walk? Is God trying to help you trust Him a bit more through the illness you’re enduring?

Choose one feature from your day and pray from it. This is an extension of Step 3. You may choose one moment where you responded well to God’s presence or you may choose a moment where you could have responded better. You may also see a common thread in your day that you are inspired to bring to prayer.

Look toward tomorrow. Pray that God will bless your tomorrow even more than today, and that the moments and lessons of this day may bring fruit in the next.

Since, in previous weeks, you have found a good time to spend some quiet, quality time with God, I now encourage you to try this type of prayer during that time. You needn’t wait until the end of the day to make this prayer. You may use this method whenever you have time for prayer. Sometimes a prayerful lunch hour is a great way to see how the day has begun and look toward the afternoon and evening.

Next week, we’ll begin our discussion of how God reaches out to us through the Sacraments.

Our Religious Shop has a fine assortment of gifts and cards for all occasions and is stocked with a large selection of books and videos for your summer enjoyment.

The Religious Shop is looking for a few volunteers!!
Saturdays from 2 pm to 4 pm and Sundays from 4:30 pm until after the 5 pm Mass. If you can help please call Frank.

Thank you for dropping your dollar bills and loose change in the poor boxes. God bless you!

Volunteers welcome and needed to join our Friday morning food packers. Please call the office if you have a couple of hours to volunteer.

Please keep in mind during the summer months our food pantry depletes quickly. You can help us keep it stocked by donating non-perishables! Thank you for your generosity!
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On the Fourth of July, we celebrate the birth of our great nation which came into existence recognizing that all people are created equal and are endowed by God with the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. At a time when there are so many challenges to these rights from the threat to the very right to life through legalized abortion to that of an inability to freely practice our faith in God, we, as American Catholics, stand united and committed to what our nation was founded to be.

Our great nation, from its very beginning, has also been a home to those from other lands who have come here to live their God given rights. The Statue of Liberty beckons, “Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free.” We are aware of the many challenges that present threats to the immigrants presently coming to our country especially through a fractured system of laws that has long been poorly addressed and now calls for more adequate reform to protect the rights of immigrants as well as the security of our nation.

As we celebrate the Fourth of July, we give thanks to God for our nation and pray that we may unite to protect it from laws which disregard the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. We unite to welcome the immigrant and stranger to our land, as so many of our ancestors were, in a manner that is generous, protective of all, and keeps families together without separating parents and children as they come. We are a nation under God and we must do all we can to keep it that way.

May the Fourth of July bring many blessings to all as we recognize and protect our freedoms and values for which our great nation was born two hundred forty-two years ago.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Our Lady’s Grotto is Getting Rejuvenated

Many of our parishioners and visitors really love the Grotto and we want to keep this space as nice as possible. Therefore, because of the generosity of some of our parishioners, we have been able to contract with some landscapers to improve the overall look of the Grotto. The main change will be to the gardens surrounding the Grotto. The overall plan will include moving some plants, removing those that are not suited to that area and planting some new ones. No structural changes will happen to the Grotto itself, although we will have the Grotto and surrounding bricks cleaned. The whole process should only take about one week, once it has begun. We will keep you informed about the changes and look forward to Our Lady’s New and Improved Grotto.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.
