Today we resume the “Bread of Life” discourse from John’s Gospel that began two weeks ago. He makes reference to the Jews’ ancestors who ate manna in the desert. These days we would think primarily of Israel wandering in the desert, but faithful Jews would also have known the story of Elijah that we hear today. Strengthened by food and drink in the desert, the angel of the Lord sends him on his forty-day and forty-night journey (the biblical number for a preparation time). Like the food given to Elijah in the desert, Jesus tells his listeners that he is bread for the life of the world. It is very important that we not stop listening to Jesus after his promise of eternal life—a marvelous promise, but this “reward” is not the only reason we feast on the Bread of Life. We also come to the table to be made strong for the journey of mission, that the whole world might have life in the fullness of Christ. We are compelled, if we have eaten of the bread of life, to go forth in service to all.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Strengthened by the Bread of Life

Today we resume the “Bread of Life” discourse from John’s Gospel that began two weeks ago. He makes reference to the Jews’ ancestors who ate manna in the desert. These days we would think primarily of Israel wandering in the desert, but faithful Jews would also have known the story of Elijah that we hear today. Strengthened by food and drink in the desert, the angel of the Lord sends him on his forty-day and forty-night journey (the biblical number for a preparation time). Like the food given to Elijah in the desert, Jesus tells his listeners that he is bread for the life of the world. It is very important that we not stop listening to Jesus after his promise of eternal life—a marvelous promise, but this “reward” is not the only reason we feast on the Bread of Life. We also come to the table to be made strong for the journey of mission, that the whole world might have life in the fullness of Christ. We are compelled, if we have eaten of the bread of life, to go forth in service to all.

Joan of Arc may have been the first woman to receive the Eucharist in the Church for the role she played in the battle for Orleans. Every year, a banner remembering Joan of Arc is draped on the rail of the Sanctuary Light box in the narthex, recalling her readiness “to give up all, even the bread of life, to save the world from destruction.”

Anointing of the Sick - A Little Dab’ll Do Ya

Last week, we talked about the first of the Sacraments of Healing, the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Today, we take healing to a whole new level, or really a whole bunch of new levels. This week, we will discuss the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

This Sacrament is perhaps the one that causes the most confusion. Some of the confusion comes from the practice of the Sacrament in times past. The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick used to be known as Extreme Uncction, which basically considers this Sacrament a final blessing. Under this title, one can imagine that it was reserved only for those who were near death. Even today, people are often scared when a priest enters their hospital room. I remember one man, turning ghostly pale and saying to me as I came to offer the Sacrament of Anointing, “Is it THAT bad Father?”

Well, since Vatican II, we have come to a better understanding of all of our Sacraments, including the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. The Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC] states the Sacrament’s purpose this way: “The Anointing of the Sick ‘is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived.’” [CCC 1514] Indeed, the time to receive this Sacrament often arrives earlier than this too. It is now common and advisable for people to ask for and receive the Sacrament of Anointing before surgery or during any serious physical, spiritual, psychological, or emotional illness, even if these would most likely not result in death. Also, this Sacrament can be received multiple times during a person’s life, or even during the same illness.

Jesus Himself instituted this Sacrament and it follows the very example He left for us. There are so many examples of Jesus healing the sick, and He often did so with a corresponding forgiveness of sins. One might think of the story of the paralyzed man who was lowered down through a roof to Jesus’ feet. Jesus first forgave the man’s sins and then cured him. [See Mark 2:1-12] Today the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick allows for the same effects, healing of body and soul. The Rite begins with the following words: “Lord God, you have said to us through your apostle James: ‘Are there people sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up. If they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them.’” [Rite of Anointing of the Sick]

One caution should be realized. While healing always results from this Sacrament when people have faith in the work of Jesus through the Sacrament, there is not always physical cure. Sometimes, for sure, the sick person is cured physically, but sometimes the healing is spiritual, emotional, psychological, or relational – all of which are also important and beneficial to the sick person and those close to her.

Next week, we will begin our discussion of the Sacraments of Vocation with the Sacrament of Holy Orders.
PARISH FAMILY VOCATIONS CHALICE PROGRAM

As part of St. Paul of the Cross’s ongoing commitment to the encouragement and development of vocations including the priesthood, religious and marriage, the Knights of Columbus have provided financial and prayerful support to seminarians for many years. In keeping with this commitment, the Parish Family Vocations Chalice Program will be introduced and will begin at the 9:00 AM Mass on August 19, 2018.

Each week at the end of Communion, a volunteer family will be called to the front to receive a book of prayers and a Chalice to be used as a focal point. The family will take these materials home and pray for vocations using the daily prayers provided in the book. These materials are then returned to the church to be distributed to another family the following Sunday.

Families include those with children, couples with or without children, grandparents and single people. Anyone who wishes to participate in this important ministry is welcome.

A member of the Knights of Columbus will be in the back of the church after Mass to accept the contact information of those who are willing to volunteer.

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!!

Dear community and family of St Paul of the Cross.
Receive a cordial greeting in Christ Jesus.

...When the troops return from some mission, they go before their commander saying, Mission Accomplished!
For us, as the Lord’s disciples, the mission never ends, because the Lord is always asking us to take care of his flock, loving and serving our brothers and sisters; it does not matter our condition or place in which we find ourselves.

I want with these words to express my most sincere gratitude, first to God for giving me the blessing of having been able to do my pastoral year here in the community of St. Paul of the Cross. Truly it was a great experience in my process of formation towards the priesthood. I also want to thank Father Tom for his generosity, guidance and hospitality during these months; to the staff for being always available to serve with generosity; and to the groups and the different ministries for their great dedication of service to the Lord and the community.

Finally I want to thank each and every one of you for your welcoming spirit, as well as for all your prayers and support. St Paul of the Cross is a community where people can find a warm welcome and everyone who comes here does not feel like a strange, they feel like brothers; it is a place and a community where people choose to belong. May God bless all of you and your families abundantly and may His infinite love always be with you. Know that I will keep all of you present in my daily prayers.

“Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.” 1 Thes. 5: 16-18.

Fraternally in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Your brother and friend,
Seminarian Robinson Aza

BACK TO SCHOOL BLESSING

God of knowledge and wisdom, bless all students young and old, as they begin a new school year.
Help them discover and develop the gifts You have given. As they grow in knowledge, help them to also grow in kindness and compassion, learning respect for themselves and others.
We ask Your blessing on parents and all those who care for students. Strengthen them to surround our students with encouragement, support and love.
Remind us that wherever we go, You are always with us. Fill us with the joy of learning so that we may be better equipped to be your servants. AMEN!

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out your protecting arm over men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
