TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOT AGAINST US

Like Moses before him, Jesus corrects his disciples’ misunderstanding of the gift of the Spirit. They saw people who were not of their company casting out demons and doing other works such as Jesus had done. Jesus points out that no one who does a good deed in his name can be opposed to him at the same time. He goes on to point out the importance of the “little ones”: the poor, simple people, children, the meek ones who are not important in the world. It is to them that he was sent, not to the wealthy and the self-righteous. He underscores the importance of small works done in faith, as well as big works like driving out demons. “Anyone who gives you a cup of water . . . because you belong to Christ . . . will surely not lose his reward” (Mark 9:41). God builds the coming reign little by little in our actions, however small and unassuming, when they are done out of love of God and neighbor.

Saturday: Jb 42:1-3, 5-6, 12-17; Ps 119:66, 71, 75, 91, 125, 130; Lk 10:17-24

To prepare for the Readings of October 6/7
First Reading — The man said, “This one is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called ‘woman’ ” (Genesis 2:24).
Psalm — May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives (Psalm 128).
Second Reading — He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin (Hebrews 2:9-11).
Gospel — Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it (Mark 10:2-16 [2-12]).
The Mass, Part 3 – Mom, Do I Have to Go?

Last week, we explored the various terms that we might use for the Mass, including Holy Communion and the Eucharistic Assembly. The terms we reviewed gave us some insights into the importance of the Mass for the life of the Church and our lives. As mentioned in our column on the Sacrament of the Eucharist, the Sacrament is known as “the source and summit of the Christian life.” [Lumen Gentium, 11; cf. Looking through Stained Glass, Sept. 9, “The Eucharist – Source and Summit of our Lives”]

By extension, the Mass takes on the same importance as the Sacrament it produces.

So far, we have described why it is important to receive the Eucharist – because it is the “source and summit of the Christian Life.” But, why should we go to Mass? Some might argue that they do not need the Church to approach God. Usually they follow this statement with, “all I need is me and God.” [Notice the order – me and God.] God is always available to us, but the Mass affords us a special opportunity to find communion with God. What we are advocating is joining with the community of the Church and approaching God as one Body of Christ. Why is that important? Let’s begin by recognizing the one who gave us the Eucharist – God Himself. Our God is a Trinity – a community – and our participation with God that comes from the Eucharist makes us part of this community. In other words, if community is the way God relates within Himself – and with us, He is asking us to relate to Him in the same way – as a community. Why do you think that Jesus gave us the “Our Father” and not the “My Father?”

Also, we should participate in the Mass because Jesus, gathering His Apostles together as a community, said we should: “Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.”’ [LK 22:19, emphasis added]

When we celebrate the Mass, we are doing what Jesus asked us to do.

If we are still not convinced that we should join with our brothers and sisters to celebrate the Lord’s Supper, then perhaps we could talk about what we get from the Mass. When we celebrate the Mass, Jesus is truly present. In Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, we are told that Jesus is present in four distinct ways in the Mass: in the sacrament [Eucharist], in the minister, in His Word, and in the people. [SC, 7] We get to receive Jesus in all four ways, when we actively participate in the Mass. We are especially blessed to receive the Real Presence of Jesus – Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity – in the Eucharist [Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1374]. We receive Him into our bodies and we truly become part of His Body.

Next week, we will take a more in-depth look at our active participation in the Mass.

requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

Mohly Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
