A BIBLE STUDY FOR ALL PARISHIONERS!

BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17TH AT 7 PM IN THE AVE MARIA HALL.

What was Christ’s mission, really, and what does He mean when He talks about the “Kingdom of Heaven”? Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a Bible study that dives into the personhood and kingship of Christ.

You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven. Set in the rich context of Jesus’ life, Matthew shows us who Jesus is and what His life and teachings mean for us today.

SIGN UP NOW FOR THIS BIBLE STUDY PLEASE CALL THE PARISH OFFICE. Facilitated by Fr. Tom

To prepare for the Readings of October 13/14
First Reading — I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. (Wisdom 7:7-11).
Psalm — Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy! (Psalm 90).
Second Reading — Indeed the word of God is living and effective (Hebrews 4:12-13).
Gospel — It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God (Mark 10:17-30 [17-27]).
A Column by Fr. Tom

The Mass, Part 4 – What Happens When We All Work Together

Last week, we explored why the Mass is important to the life of the Church and to our lives. We also discussed why we should go to Mass. However, as good as it is to go to Mass, we are actually called to do more – we are called to participate in the Mass.

In Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy from Vatican II, “Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as ‘a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people’ (1 Pet. 2:9; cf. 2:4-5), is their right and duty by reason of their baptism.” [SC 14, emphasis added]

As we discussed in our column on the Sacrament of Baptism, we are called from our baptism to be priests, prophets and kings. [cf. Stained Glass, July 22, “I Baptize You Priest, Prophet and King”]

Through the common priesthood of the faithful, we are called to join with the rest of the community in prayer, especially during the Mass.

From this common priesthood, some are called to special participation in the Mass. There are some who are called to ordained ministry [bishops, priests and deacons], who share, in different degrees, in the ministerial priesthood of Jesus Christ. These men are called to specific roles within the Mass. As we discussed last week and in previous columns, the priest represents the person of Christ during the Mass. Therefore, he presides at our celebration and is thus properly called the celebrant. Also, he prays all of the presidential prayers, especially the Eucharistic prayer which effects the transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus. In addition, he usually preaches the homily on the readings. The deacon has a special role in the Mass as well. He assists the priest, proclaims the Gospel, and may preach the homily.

One of the great changes that grew from the changes of Vatican II is increased participation of the laity in the Mass, based on their common priesthood mentioned above. Now, we have many more women and men involved in the Mass, including Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and Altar Servers. These were all roles that were previously reserved for the ordained, or those who were officially installed in these roles and on their way toward ordination. In addition, there are other members of the congregation who are involved in special roles that support the liturgy, such as Musicians, Sacristans and Ushers.

Finally, through the common priesthood of the faithful, all of us have a “right and duty” to participate in the Mass, as discussed in the quote above from Sacrosanctum Concilium. We are called to respond to the dialogues during the Mass. (e.g. When the celebrant says, “The Lord be with you,” we respond “And with your Spirit.”) We should also participate in praying the common prayers of the Mass, such as the Our Father and the Gloria, and join in singing the hymns. These are just some of the ways that everyone can actively participate in the Mass.

Next week, we will take a more in-depth look at how we actively participate in the Mass with our bodies, as well as our voices.

October 6, 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend the parishes in our Diocese will participate in a second collection for World Mission Sunday observed on October 21, 2018. The funds raised during this collection will support more than 1.100 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. It is in these dioceses where priests, religious and lay leaders serve some of the world's most vulnerable communities.

The theme for this year's World Mission Sunday is Together with young people, let us bring the Gospel to all. This theme reflects the fact that we are all children of God, at every stage of life, and that we are called to serve our sisters and brothers. We, the Church, reborn in Jesus Christ, take the message of the Gospel, the joy of salvation, to the ends of the earth.

With one voice, one heart and one body may we proclaim one Lord, one faith and one baptism, so that God may be glorified. The Scriptures say in Psalms 96:3. “Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his marvelous deeds.”

Thank you for your commitment to the faith and your spiritual and financial generosity. May God bless you and your families with every grace and peace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito

Respect Life Sunday 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

Every year, the month of October is used to inaugurate the Respect Life Program of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and is designated as Respect Life Month. Since we are already in the fall season, October reminds us of the seasons of nature which reflect the seasons of life. We are graced with life from the moment of conception in our mother’s womb and our lives experience changes and growth until our passing from this world. Life is a gift from God and it is sacred at every moment and stage of its existence.

The theme for this year’s Respect Life Program is Every Life—Cherish, Chosen, Sent. The theme speaks to us of the inherent dignity and value of every person no matter his or her background, race, sex, abilities, disabilities, merits or failures. Pope Francis has reminded us this year of the fundamental right to life of every person at every stage by his reiterating the teaching of St. John Paul II and Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI that the death penalty is no longer an admissible alternative to the protection of life in modern society. Every life is a reflection of a participation in the very life of the Creator.

We encounter so many signs of a lack of respect for life in our world today from the taking of innocent life through abortion to attempts at terminating the lives of the elderly, sick and infirm under the guise of the enhancement of life. As men and women of faith in God, we recognize the right to life of every human being made in His image and likeness and recommit ourselves to cherishing and protecting that life at every stage.

In a particular way, we also recommit ourselves to do all that we can to prohibit legalized abortion within society and to provide loving alternatives to it which respect both the life of the child and its mother. The legalization of abortion in our nation has put us on a slippery slope which cedes respect for life at every stage. As Pope Francis so poignantly stated this year in his Apostolic Exhortation on holiness, Gaudete et Exsultate, "Our defense of the innocent unborn ... needs to be clear, firm and passionate, for at stake is the dignity of a human life, which is always sacred and demands love for each person, regardless of his or her stage of development."

Let us, during this Respect Life Month of October and in the coming months, continue our efforts to respect life as we realize that every life is cherished, chosen and sent. I am deeply edified by and grateful for all that you do and for all of your prayers in the most important matter of encouraging respect for life.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ.
